2011 Academic Year Student Exchange Support Program (scholarship for short-term outbound program)
provided by Japan Student Services Organization (JASSO)

The aim of this program is to support and promote the development of students who have an international perspective, in a world where global exchange is increasing. In this academic year 2011, CIE sponsored short term program was seen to be in-line with this objective and was selected by the government support system.

This means we are now able to provide scholarship funds to those who studied in our academic year 2011 Spring Study abroad program and met all their requirements and qualifications.

This scholarship is not based on past academic performance and family circumstances, but all applicants who have met their requirements and qualifications are eligible. Pre-registration before the program is not necessary, however there is a deadline to submit required documents after participation in each program.

1. Monthly scholarship : ¥80,000

- If the program is shorter than or equal to 31 days ¥80,000 (1 months worth)
- If the program is between 32-62 days ¥160,000 (2 months worth)

2. Eligibility requirements for receiving the scholarship.
