

SUMMER UNIVERSITY

CBS 2016

“ ‘Globalization’ isn’t just a textbook term to be studied at CBS. It’s intrinsic to the ISUP experience as students and faculty from more than 50 countries share their diverse insight and homegrown perspectives.

Long after summer courses have been completed, and memories of Copenhagen have been made, it is this welcoming international spirit that’s likely to have also shaped many of tomorrow’s global business executives.

INTERNATIONAL SUMMER UNIVERSITY PROGRAMME – ISUP 2016

WONDERFUL COPENHAGEN

Copenhagen – the capital of Denmark – is known for its charm and the aesthetic combination of historic and modern architecture. Copenhagen is a trendsetting place, and it is truly a cosmopolitan, safe, and approachable city.

COPENHAGEN BUSINESS SCHOOL & ISUP

Copenhagen Business School (CBS) is internationally accredited and a leading European business school. ISUP is one of the world's longest running and largest summer programs, and in 2015 more than 2000 participants joined ISUP. The program is open to all and welcomes domestic and international university students as well as young professionals.

COURSES AND CREDITS

In 2016 ISUP will offer approx. 50 courses taught in English at the undergraduate and graduate levels. They will cover a wide range of classic business courses as well as more diverse, innovative and entrepreneurial courses, which draw on other academic disciplines. Each course is 7.5 ECTS, and students can enroll in a maximum of 2 courses (15 ECTS). The program runs for 6 weeks.

FACULTY

Each year ISUP invites a strong field of outstanding and dedicated faculty members from around the world, which creates an exciting and international atmosphere. The faculty members are highly experienced and have strong backgrounds within research. The vast majority holds a PhD from renowned universities.

SOCIAL PROGRAM

To complement our academic program, ISUP offers the opportunity to take part in an action-packed cultural and social program. Taking part in this program is a wonderful opportunity for international participants to get to know each other, Copenhagen, and Danish culture through specially arranged activities such as international dinners, city tours, folk dancing, and a weekend-trip to Berlin.

IMPORTANT DATES

Classes start 27 June and the last day in class is 29 July 2016. The exam period runs from 1-5 August 2016. The Welcome Day for international students is 25 June (Saturday), so students should arrive in Copenhagen on 24 June (Friday).
