

Workshop on Clinical Legal Education

"New Directions of Legal Education in the United Kingdom and Japan —Building a Collaboration of Academics and Practitioners for the Training of Lawyers"

Date: July 27, 2008 (Sunday) 13:20 pm – 17:10 pm

Place: Ono Auditorium, 27th Building, Waseda University

Sponsor: Science Research Group of Clinical Legal Education, JSPS

Co-sponsor: Waseda University Law School, the Institute of Comparative Law, and the Institute of Clinical Legal Education

Coordinator: Takao Suami (Professor, Waseda Law School)

Languages: Japanese and English (simultaneous interpretation available)

Schedule:

13:20 pm-13:30 pm Opening Remarks

Kaoru Kamata (Dean and Professor, Waseda Law School)

13:30 pm-14:15 pm Keynote Speech I

Title: "New Directions in English Legal Education

Building a Collaboration of Academics and Practitioners for the Training of Lawyers "

Speaker: Avrom Sherr (Director of Institute of Advanced Legal Studies, University of London, Wolf Professor of Legal Education)

14:15 pm-15:00 pm Keynote Speech II

Title: "Bridging Theory and Practice: Are We Doing What We Should Be? "

Speaker: Masako Kamiya (Professor, Gakushuin University Law School)

15:00 pm-15:20 pm Break

15:20 pm-17:00 pm Panel Discussion

Panelists: Avrom Sherr (Director of Institute of Advanced Legal Studies, University of London, Wolf Professor of Legal Education)

Masako Kamiya (Professor, Gakushuin University Law School)

Taichi Kajimura (Professor, Waseda Law School)

Shigeo Miyagawa (Director of the Institute of Clinical Legal Education, and Professor, Waseda Law School)

Moderator: Takao Suami (Professor, Waseda Law School)

Special Guest: Sir Adrian Fulford (High Court Judge in the United Kingdom and Judge of the International Criminal Court in the Hague)

17:00 pm-17:10 pm Closing Remarks

Michiatsu Kaino (Director of the Institute of Comparative Law, and Professor, Waseda University Faculty of Law and the Law School)