<http://registrar.unm.edu/academic-calendar/ten-year-semester-dates-calendar.html>

Summary:

Students in the full-time English program will be able to register for 4 – 6 academic courses of their choice, which will be taught in English.

Academic Study

All Waseda students will be taking courses that are open to any students at the University of New Mexico. Intensive English classes meet every day. Academic courses usually meet 3 – 5 hours per week per course.

Waseda students can enroll in any academic courses for which they have completed the designated pre-requisites. In a few cases, such as studio art or architecture courses, students will have to submit a portfolio of their previous works in order to register for some classes.

Please note that students who are taking classes in business must pay an additional $10 for each credit hour: for example a student taking 12 business credits would pay an additional $120; and a student taking one 3-credit business course would pay an additional $30.

There are also sometimes special fees attached to individual classes to pay for things like materials, laboratory supplies, computer costs, etc. Some of the courses include business, architecture, fine arts, and lab science courses. The costs vary and are listed in the Schedule of Classes under each class description:

http://www.unm.edu/~rst/Schedule\_of\_Classes/Spring2015/SCHM/index.html

We are currently waiting for the Fall 2015 schedule. Students should be sure to check those before they register for classes so they know what they will be charged for each class.

Students who wish to take classes in studio art or architecture need to consult to UNM. Classes for the medical college is not open for this program.

Below are listed the areas of study available at the University of New Mexico for undergraduate students. Written descriptions of all UNM courses are available in the UNM Catalog on line at: <http://catalog.unm.edu/catalogs/2014-2015/>

We are currently waiting for the release of the 2015/2016 year catalog.

Opportunities for Learning Through Experience

UNM has more than 400 student organizations, including academic, cultural, honorary, political, social, religious, service, special interests, recreational and intramural sports. See more information on the website at:

https://unm-community.symplicity.com/index.php?s=student\_group&au=&ck=

The Global Education Office (GEO) sponsors many social, recreational, and cultural events on campus and within state of New Mexico and the other parts of the U.S. The Residence Life program offers many activities within the dormitories.

UNM 391/498 Seminar in International Experiential Learning

Fall/Spring/Summer is a special online course designed for international students seeking internship, service-learning, or volunteer experience with an organization. GEO will help set up these opportunities and additionally, the student will be earn 3 credits hours for their work. Contact Professor Guida Leicester at 505-573-7902 or mleicest@unm.edu

Facilitation Plan

Waseda students will participate in new student orientation activities sponsored by CELAC and the Global Education Office and Residence Life. Advisors in GEO will be available to meet with students to discuss any academic, bureaucratic, social, cultural, or personal issues. All academic departments also have advisors to discuss course selection and academic issues with the students taking classes in those areas.
