

Dear University Students in Japan!

The G200 Association invites you to participate in the 11th G200 Youth Forum (April, 6 to April, 10 2016, Garmisch-Partenkirchen, Bavaria, Germany) - one of the largest international events organized for young leaders from around 200 countries in 2016, and over 500 young leaders, students and academics, representatives of the business world and governments will be participating in it.

The G200 Youth Forum 2016 has 4 main events which will run in tandem with each other:

- ✓ G20 Youth Summit – Communiqué
- ✓ Conference – Publication of academic articles in the Conference Proceedings
- ✓ International Young Parliamentarians' Debate – Joint Statement
- ✓ Joint Sessions – Results

The participants will receive such benefits as:

- ✓ The opportunity to make a report in front of an international scientific audience of professors and students;
- ✓ To establish lasting contacts with all other participants of the G200 Youth Forum, including representatives of business and government, international organizations, academics, students and professors from some of the best universities in the world, as well as experts in the field of international relations, finance, economics and law;
- ✓ To develop personal trust and friendship through the special atmosphere of evening and cultural events;
- ✓ To discuss your research topics with the colleagues from all over the world;
- ✓ To discuss your research topics with leading experts, etc.

Please, pay your attention that it is possible to take part in the Observers' Program. The Observer status does not require any elaborate preparation but allows to attend 2 platforms of the event (The Conference and Joint Sessions) and all evening events and to benefit from the atmosphere and discussions.
