

SECOND ASIAN WORKSHOP ON ECONOMETRICS AND HEALTH ECONOMICS

OTARU, HOKKAIDO
JAPAN
December 8-10, 2019

Econometrics and Health Economics

This series of workshops provides a forum for the development and dissemination of applications of econometrics in health economics.

The workshop will follow the format of the long-running European Workshops on Econometrics and Health Economics, with a particular vision to: Promote health economics research with applied microeconomics focus in Asia; strengthen research network within the region; develop research network with other regions; and build on the research capacity of early-career health economists in Asia.

The Workshop

The workshop program consists of up to 13 oral and 9 poster presentations. For oral presentations, each paper is allocated one hour, made up of a presentation by the author, followed by a response from a discussant and general discussion. In the poster session, the author presents four 15-minute talks in front of a small group of audiences. The number of participants will be limited to 48. Workshop participants will be expected to attend the whole of the meeting and play a role as either author, discussant or chairperson.

The workshop will begin with lunch on Sunday, December 8, followed by a key-note lectures by:
Jonathan Skinner, Dartmouth College

The workshop concludes 5pm on Tuesday, December 10.
