This film paints a picture of the beauty found by a couple living each day on the verge of death from their illness.

This time at the ICC, we have decided to hold a screening of this film focusing on accepting various ways of living and values of people in these special circumstances.

After the screening, there will be a mixing time with snacks and drinks where you can chat casually with other participants about the film and its themes.

So if you missed this one at the cinema, if you love film, if you want to cry at a beautiful fleeting story, or if you're studying about diversity, come along and join this event.

Don't miss this chance to see this blockbuster movie for free and share the moving emotions with everyone!

<<Synopsis>>

Hazel, the main character of this story, has terminal cancer. Eventually persuaded by her mother to attend a cancer patient support group, there she meets Augustus who has had one of his legs amputated to treat his own bone cancer. Afraid of wounding him with her inevitable death, Hazel tries to keep her distance. However Augustus stubbornly resolves to make her turn around and see him by using his own "make a wish" to give her a great surprise...

この映画は自身の病気により、死を身近に感じ ながら日々を生きる一組のカップルの姿を美し く描いています。

この度ICCでは、特殊な境遇に置かれた人々 の多様な生き方、価値観の受容に焦点を当て た映画上映会を開催します。

本編上映後には、参加者同士が感想を力 ジュアルに語り合うカフェ交流タイムもご用意し ました。(スナック&ドリンク付き!)公開を見逃 してしまった人、映画が好きな人、泣きたい人、 ダイバーシティについて勉強中の人も、是非ご 参加ください!
