4. Taking Courses and Exams for Courses Offered by Other Schools

Students must follow the guidelines of each school in order to take courses offered by the other schools. It should be noted that other schools' timetables might be different from WBS.

V. Grading System

1. Student achievement in lecture courses is indicated using the following five-grade system. Pass grades are indicated with A+, A, B, or C, and fail grades are indicated by F. Specific courses will utilize a two-scale grading system with P for passing and Q for failing. Transcripts will list the courses that are counted and not counted toward the degree requirements in which a passing grade was received and will not list courses in which a failing grade was awarded.

| P/Q-Graded Courses |
| BILINGUAL COURSE (Japanese Management, Creative Process and Ethics for Business, Family Business Management A: Theory and Family Business Plan Development How to Globalize Family Businesses, Corporate Value Creation in the Age of Digitalization (DX), Diversity Management in the Accelerated Globalization Era), Business English, Leadership by Example A, Leadership by Example B, Practical Case Studies, Dialogue with Top Entrepreneurs in Japan, Diversity & Inclusion Management for Business persons. |

2. S.A. and GPA

WBS uses two systems for individual grade averages: S.A. (Scholarship Average) and GPA (Grade Point Average). S.A. is the standard used within WBS for screening outgoing exchange students to WBS's partner institutions and for selecting candidates for scholarships within WBS. GPA is the standard used for screening students dispatched under inter-university partnerships and for selecting candidates for scholarships within the university. The main difference between the S.A. and GPA is that the S.A. does not include specialized research courses or courses offered by other majors, other graduate schools or other institutions.

(1) About S.A.

The total grade at WBS is calculated as follows:

- (a) Each grade will be converted to a grade point (GP).

(b) The GP for each grade is as follows.

| Grade | Point | GP | Grade | Point | GP |
|-------|--------|----|-------|-------|-----|
| A + | 100–90 | 3 | C | 69–60 | 0 |
| A | 89–80 | 2 | F | 59– | - 1 |
| B | 79–70 | 1 | | | |

(c) The S.A. is the average GP calculated by the method below. The S.A. (up to two decimal points) is reflected in the final result.

* Add the products of each GP and the number of credits (CN) given, then divide that sum by the total number of credits registered (including the number of failed credits).

<S.A. calculation>

$$(A^+ \text{ CN} \times 3) + (A \text{ CN} \times 2) + (B \text{ CN} \times 1) + (C \text{ CN} \times 0) + (F \text{ CN} \times -1)$$

Total number of credits registered (including failed credits and except for courses not counted for S.A.)

*Decimals are shown to the second place. (The third decimal place will be rounded.)

(d) Courses for S.A.

| Program | Courses for S.A. |
|--|---|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - International MBA Program - MSc in Finance Program - One-year MBA Program - Evening MBA Program (General) - Evening MBA Program (Specialized) - Waseda-Nanyang Double MBA Program | All courses offered by the WBS are counted for S.A., in principle, but the following courses are excluded. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - specialized research (Seminar courses "Zemi", Research Guidances, Project Researches, Thesis) - P/Q-graded courses - Non-credit courses - courses provided by other graduate schools or institutes |

(e) The S.A. is shown on the "WEB grade page." (It is not shown on the "Transcript of academic records.")

(2) About GPA

For academic assessment for courses, GPA is calculated as follows:

(a) Each grade will be converted to a grade point (GP).

(b) The GP for each grade is as follows.

| Grade | Point | GP | Grade | Point | GP |
|-------|--------|----|-------|-------|----|
| A + | 100–90 | 4 | C | 69–60 | 1 |
| A | 89–80 | 3 | F | 59– | 0 |
| B | 79–70 | 2 | | | |

(C) Add the products of each GP and the CN given, then divide that sum by the total number of credits registered (including the number of failed credits).

$$(A^+ \text{ CN} \times 4) + (A \text{ CN} \times 3) + (B \text{ CN} \times 2) + (C \text{ CN} \times 1) + (F \text{ CN} \times 0)$$

Total number of credits registered (including failed credits)

*Decimals are shown to the second place (the third decimal place will be rounded).

(d) Courses for GPA

All courses registered for the degree (other than Non-credit courses) are included in the GPA calculations. However, the grade assessments for the courses listed below, which are included in the degree, are not reflected in the GPA.

- P/Q-graded courses
- Research guidances, which uses P/Q assessment.

(e) Notification and certification of GPA

The GPA is indicated on the “WEB grade page.” A GPA certificate will be issued that indicates the grades and GPA for courses that use GPA. GPA is not shown on the “Transcript of Academic Records.”

3. Assessment methods

WBS uses a grading system that is based upon three assessment methods: Comparative Grading, Adjusted Comparative Grading, and Absolute Grading.

| Assessment Method | Course Category |
|------------------------------|---|
| Comparative Grading | Compulsory core courses, Compulsory elective core courses (except MSc) |
| Adjusted Comparative Grading | General elective courses, Overseas courses, Compulsory elective core courses (offered at MSc) |
| Absolute Grading | Seminar, Project research, Thesis |

Basic Grading Criteria

|------------------------------|---|
| Comparative Grading | A + (total count): Limited to 20% or less of the total number of course-registered students A + and A (total count of A+ and A grades): Limited to 40% or less of the total number of course-registered students |
| Adjusted Comparative Grading | A + (total count): Limited to 20% or less of {the total number of course-registered students + 5} A + and A (total count of A+ and A grades): Limited to 50% or less of {the total number of course-registered students + 5} |

The grading methods are decided by the principal course segment regardless of which program a student belongs to. Thus, for example, if evening professional students take compulsory elective core courses, the credits will be counted as elective course graduation credits, but the assessment methods will be Comparative Grading. Take careful note of this when signing up for courses.

4. Commendation System for Honor Students with Good Academic Results

WBS offers commendations to honor students with good academic results for each program.

Dean's List: posting on the bulletin board and issuing a certificate.

Commendation for high achievers each semester.

A student, who registered for at least five courses (except Specialized Research and PQ assessment courses) in the most-recent semester and the S.A. value is within the top 15%.

Distinguished Students: posting on the bulletin board and awarding a certificate of merit.

Commendation for students with good results at the time of graduation.

A student, whose period of enrollment is within the standard period, and the S.A. value is within the top 10% at the time of graduation.

Extra Effort Students: (Apply only to students in the IMBA program): awarding a certificate of merit.

Commendation for students in the International MBA program (full-time) who earned a large number of credits.

A student, whose period of enrollment is within the standard period and at the time of graduation, has earned 64 credits or above for courses required for graduation and achieved an S.A. equal to or higher than 1.0.

VI. Study Abroad

1. WBS strongly encourages its students to study abroad during their enrollment.

(1) Exchange programs under the departmental agreement

WBS has established student exchange agreements with 41 partner institutions. WBS sends students and accepts students from the partner schools.

The list of WBS partner schools is available on our Website:

<https://www.waseda.jp/fcom/wbs/en/applicants/global>

(2) Exchange programs with partner schools under the university-wide agreement

Waseda University has a variety of student exchange agreements with about 600 partner schools around the world and sends Waseda graduate students to the partner schools. Please refer to the study-abroad handbook issued by the Center for International Education for further information.

(3) Other study-abroad programs

Students who participate in any study-abroad program other than the programs mentioned above will be regarded as taking part in “Privately Financed” study-abroad programs. In such cases, please consult with the WBS Office before departure.

2. In principle, study-abroad programs are one year or less in length. Please contact the WBS office for the details regarding the school fees and the student status at WBS before applying for a student exchange program.

(1) In the case of exchange programs under the departmental agreement, the participants must pay all tuition and fees to WBS. The full tuition and fees of the host institution will be exempt.

(2) The tuition and fees in the student exchange programs under the university-wide agreement will vary depending on the program.

(3) For students who participate in Privately Financed study-abroad programs, a fee of 50,000 JPY will be charged as a registration fee by Waseda, each semester. The tuition and fees for the host institution will be charged by the host institution for each semester.

3. Credits earned during the study-abroad programs (except language courses) may be officially transferred and recognized within the limit of 12 credits for each degree after completion of the credits transfer procedures and screening. When recognized, they will be counted as General Elective Courses and the course titles are written in English on the transcripts of academic records. For students who participate in Privately Financed study-abroad programs, if credits earned during the Privately Financed study-abroad program are transferred, a credit transfer fee will be charged.

Application for transfer credits earned during a study-abroad period should be made in accordance with the deadlines indicated on the following table. The application result will be announced at the time of the grade announcements, in which the transferred credits will be recognized.

As a general rule, a credit transfer application after the designated deadlines will not be permitted, and a credit transfer can be made only while the student is enrolled at WBS.

It is possible to participate in an exchange program in the final semester before graduation, with the understanding that the credits earned may not be transferred if the transcript from the partner school is not issued in time before the designated deadline.

| End date for study-abroad program | Students in their final semester | | Other students | |
|-----------------------------------|---|---|---|---|
| | Credit recognition application deadline | Announcement of credit recognition decision | Credit recognition application deadline | Announcement of credit recognition decision |
| Departs in spring semester | End of June | Early September | Within 3 months after the end of study-abroad program | Grade announcement day, depending on application date |
| Departs in fall semester | End of January | Early March | | |

VII. Chair Courses and Other Collaboration Courses

WBS seeks to contribute to the improvements and development in the fields of education and research and has entered into academia and research tie-ups with other institutions and organizations. In order to maintain its independence, individual character, and originality, the university has adopted the following guidelines.

- (1) Respect individuals' academic freedom and independence.
- (2) Promote world peace and human welfare through research; never engage in any military research or military development.
- (3) Contribute to the research goals and development and educational advancement of the university.
- (4) Never engage in any illegitimate research activities that prohibit the publication of the research findings. This, however, does not apply to any agreement resulting from trust or rational regulations between/among entrusted researcher(s) and/or co-researcher(s).
- (5) Ensure social fairness in all activities.
- (6) Disclose and publicize all related documents based on democratic procedures, ensuring that all such decisions are based on the decisions of the researcher(s)/author(s).

In order to carry out the aforementioned guidelines without bias or fear, the university has set up a Guideline Committee to oversee each individual tie-up.

The following chair course lectures have been set up under the supervision of the aforementioned inspection committee.
