<< Warning on Submitting Your Reports, Papers and Other Document >>

Submitting a report, thesis, or other document containing any text or ideas borrowed from other people as if they were your own, without indicating their sources and appropriately stating that they are quotations will constitute plagiarism (theft), and will be handled in the same way as cheating on a test (copying from other person's answer papers or documents prohibited from being brought in). Doing so will constitute a wrongful act.

If you are found to have committed such a wrongful act, you will be subject to severe punishment, including the invalidation of your attendance for that course, the invalidation of your attendance for other courses you have taken up to that point in your school or graduate school, and possibly even suspension from school.

You are requested, therefore, to take great care when preparing and submitting a report, thesis, or other document.

Using text written by another person either wholly or in part without permission constitutes a violation of copyright. Information about plagiarism (theft) in reports, theses, and other documents is published on the website below.

We encourage you to refer to this website, also.

https://www.waseda.jp/inst/eco/undergraduate/class/#anc_09

Note that a report, thesis, or other document that you submit may be sent over the Internet and copied to a server so that instructors and others can use tools for checking whether any plagiarism (theft) has been committed.

I agree with the above, and confirm that the report, thesis, or other document I am about to submit contains no inappropriate plagiarism (theft).

I confirmed.

Submitting Report

1. Read the notes carefully, and tick 「 I confirmed.」.
2. Click 「Submitting Report」

②Submission-3

The screenshot shows a web interface for submitting a report. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'Welcome back MASUDA Natsumi-san' and 'Preview'. Below this, there are links for 'Site Feedback', 'User Guide', and 'Back'. The main section is titled 'Submitting Reports' and includes instructions: 'Please send your report as an attachment.' and 'Description: 本文をPDFファイルで提出してください。ファイルの容量上限は10MBです。' (Please upload the thesis (PDF file). The maximum size of the file is 10 MB.)

Key annotations in the screenshot include:

- A box highlighting the options: 'Assignment Submission Confirmation Email' and 'Notification Email Choose 「Yes」'. The 'Yes' radio button for 'Assignment Submission Confirmation Email' is circled in red.
- The 'Apply' button at the bottom is circled in red.
- The '参照' (Reference) button is also circled in red.

Other visible text includes: 'Title: 201809修了予定者修士論文提出(本文)/201809Completion MA Thesis Submission(Thesis)', 'Submitted by: MASUDA Natsumi (0000504469)', and 'Attach file: * The extension of a file that can be attached is specified. [pdf] * Only one file can be attached to this report.' The 'Maximum Size: 20MB' is also noted.

1. Click 「参照」and choose the file you would like to submit.
2. Click 「Apply」.

You cannot resubmit the file due to the setting of the plagiarism check system.

Make sure to upload the file after checking that the content is the final version and the same as the paper copy.
