

Islamic Feminism in Indonesia

Theories & Practices

Indonesia's feminist movement has prospered for decades, harmonizing with Islam. From grassroots initiatives preventing child marriage to pivotal legal reforms, this talk unveils theories and practices from distinguished scholars/activists within the group.

Speakers:

Dr. Nur Rofiah

PTIQ Jakarta

Nur Hayati Aida

Rumah Kitab

Discussant:

Yufu Iguchi

Ritsumeikan Asia Pacific Univ

Language: Indonesian & English

Feb 8 , 2024 (Thu) 13.00-15.00

Room 309, Building 19 (in-person only)

Waseda University, Waseda Campus

Contact: Ken Miichi (miichi@waseda.jp)

