

Waseda Institute of Asia-Pacific Studies Colloquium Series Series on Industrial Competitiveness in East Asia

Working together for a world free of poverty on a livable planet

Speaker: Carlos Felipe Jaramillo (World Bank Vice President for East Asia and Pacific)

Carlos Felipe Jaramillo is the World Bank Vice President for the East Asia and Pacific (EAP) Region. Under his leadership, the Bank's EAP operations focus on promoting sustainable energy transition, strengthening human capital through health and education programs, and enhancing resilience and digitalization to create stronger impact—ensuring more jobs and thriving communities for all. Prior to the current appointment, he served as Vice President for Latin America and the Caribbean, Division Director for Eritrea, Kenya, Rwanda, Somalia and Uganda based in Nairobi, the senior director of the World Bank Group's Macroeconomics, Trade and Investment Global Practice (MTI). Before joining the Bank, Jaramillo was a public servant in the Government of Colombia, holding offices in the Ministry of Finance, the Central Bank and the Ministry of Trade. He holds an M.A. and a Ph. D. in development economics from Stanford University.
