

[GSICCS 2021 September Enrollment Admissions]
Measures in response to COVID-19

In the face of the COVID-19 pandemic, GSICCS has decided to take the following measures for 2021 September enrollment admission applicants.

1. Online Application

Starting from 2021 Admissions, GSICCS accepts applications through an online application system. Further details will be explained in the Application Guidelines, which will be posted on our website at the end of November.

2. English proficiency test accommodations

We acknowledge that the pandemic has led to cancellations and postponement of English proficiency tests all over the world. In response to such unprecedented circumstances, GSICCS will accept the following English proficiency test scores in addition to the currently accepted test scores.

- TOEFL(iBT) Special Home Edition
- IELTS Indicator
- Duolingo English Test

<Master's Program Applicants who completed an undergraduate or graduate program conducted in English >

- GRE General Test at Home
- LSAT-Flex
- GMAT Online Exam

<Doctoral Program Applicants>

- GRE General Test at Home

- Test scores should be directly sent to the GSICCS Admissions office. Detailed submission methods will be explained in the Application Guidelines.

September 25, 2020

- If you cannot submit any of the designated English proficiency test scores, please contact the GSICCS Admissions Office in advance.

Please kindly note that the measures mentioned above are in effect as of September 25, 2020. The GSICCS Admissions Office will continue to carefully observe the influence of the pandemic and may take additional measures.
