

Open Symposium for Waseda Students and Teachers about
Area Studies and Plurilingual-Multicultural Education

Organized by SILS – APM committee

July 1st (Saturday) 2023

Date and time: Saturday, July 1st, 2023, 14h30-18h00

Place: Building 7- Room 206, Waseda Campus

Language: English

Entrance: open and free

Program

14h30-14h45: Dean Satoshi INABA

Opening words

14h45-15h00: Prof. Sylvain DETEY

Why language matters in education... and in everything.

15h00-15h30: Dr Xavier MELLET

CLIL courses on French politics and culture in Japan: outcomes and challenges of promoting plurilingualism and multiculturalism in higher education.

15h30-16h00: Dr Alba DE DIEGO PERREZ DE LA TORRE.

Intercultural dialogues and nuances lost in translation: illustration in the case of Spanish-CLIL courses in an English-based program in Japan

16h00-16h15: PAUSE

16h15-16h45: Dr Wenmin ZUO

Cultural Awareness in the Age of Globalization and International Education in Sociology: The APM-Chinese Courses at Waseda University's SILS as an Example

16h45-17h15: Dr Sangmi BAE

Korean-CLIL as a Means to Advance toward Internationalization: A Case of Critical Understanding of Korean Culture

17h15-17h45: Dr Thatcher SPERO

Content and Language Integrated Learning (CLIL) Internationalization of the Curriculum, and the Future of Higher Education Internationalization: Lessons from Japan

17h45-18h00: Free Discussion (Mod. by Prof. Shigeko MATO)