- ① Everyday noise (airplanes; motor vehicles; wind and rain; the sound of the air conditioner; coughs, sneezes and sniffles from the other examinees; the distant noise of cell phones, etc.) is sometimes unavoidable. As a general rule, no special treatment will be given to any examinee (or group of examinees) due to any occurrence of "everyday noise."
- ② In the event that a cell phone or wristwatch rings, vibrates, or otherwise causes a disturbance during the exam, and an exam supervisor can identify the particular device as the source of the disturbance, he/she will remove the device from the exam site, with or without the consent of its owner. The item will be kept at exam headquarters.
- ③ While desks, chairs, air conditioning, acoustic equipment, etc., may vary between classrooms used as test sites, this will not be taken as a handicap to any examinee.
- ④ If, by the actions of a certain examinee, other examinees are disturbed, the examinee causing the problem may be asked to take the exam in a different room.

<Unforeseen Problems that are beyond Human Control>

However, in such an event, we will bear no responsibility for any resulting inconvenience, expense, or other personal loss that the examinee may be incurred.

- If you have been accepted by one Waseda undergraduate school and completed the payment of entrance fee, school expenses and other fees to that school and are later accepted by another Waseda undergraduate school which you prefer to enter, you can enter the preferred undergraduate school and request to have the amount you have already paid transferred to that school. However, this procedure can be done only when the enrollment procedure periods of the two schools do not overlap and the applicant has not been admitted as "a recommended student of a designated school". For more information about the procedure, please refer to the handbook on entrance procedures mailed to successful applicants.

5-3 : Submission of Enrollment Documents

Those who have completed the transfer of admission fee (registration fee), school expenses and other fees will receive additional documents for the second enrollment procedure.

5-4 : Application for the COE by proxy/Obtaining a student visa

International students without resident status in Japan are basically required to apply for the Certificate of Eligibility (COE) in order to apply for a Student visa to enter and reside in Japan.

Application for the COE must be filed by one of the following person:

1. The student himself/herself
2. Administrative staff of the accepting institution (Waseda University) 【As a proxy】

Waseda will act as a proxy (on behalf of the student) and apply for your COE if all the following requirements are met:

1. The student does not have a Japanese residence status and requires a COE to obtain a “Student” visa
2. The student submits all the required documents for the COE and completes the necessary enrollment procedure

The following steps must be taken in order to obtain a COE and student visa.

1. Apply for the COE by submitting the COE application documents at the Tokyo immigration bureau.
2. After the COE is issued, the student should take it together with other documents (e.g. Passport) to the local Japanese embassy or consulate and apply for a Student visa.

“Student” Visa Acquisition Process (1 → 2 → 3 → 4 → 5 → 6)

NOTE:

- The entire process takes approximately two-three months thus please submit the COE documents at the time of admissions.
- If you hold a dual citizenship of Japan and another country, you cannot apply for the COE/student visa.
- Non-Japanese nationals with a Short-term visa are not eligible to enroll in a university.
- If you already have a “Student” visa, apply for the extension of the period of stay as needed. An application for the extension of the period of stay can be filed from three months before your visa expires. For further information, contact the Immigration Bureau.
- If you currently have a visa other than “Short-term” visa (such as “Long-term Resident” or “Dependent”), you do not need to undertake any immigration procedure. If you wish to change your visa status to “Student”, you should apply for a change of resident status at your own responsibility.
- “Student” visa holders are eligible to apply for tuition waiver programs and scholarships for international students. A non-Japanese resident who holds a visa other than “Student” allows him/her to enroll in a university but may not be able to apply for the financial support programs for international students.
- Waseda applies on behalf of applicants for a COE only for a “Student” visa. Those who intend to apply for other types of visas are required to file their applications themselves.
- If you do not submit the necessary documents or the submitted documents are incomplete, Waseda will not be able to apply for a COE on your behalf.
- If you are admitted to another institution as well as Waseda and apply for a COE or a visa for both institutions (double application), the COE will not be issued.
- The Immigration Bureau may require you to submit additional documents.
- Depending on the content of documents prepared by the applicant, a COE may not be issued.
- An applicant who wishes to withdraw from enrolling in Waseda after receiving the COE must follow the procedure for the withdrawal of enrollment and immediately return the COE to Waseda University.
