

School of International Liberal Studies –Waseda University
Area studies and Plurilingual-Multicultural education programme (APM)

International symposium
2018

International identities, plurilingualism and comparatism in higher education: an interdisciplinary perspective

高等教育における国際的アイデンティティと多言語主義、
地域比較—学際的視点から

Day and Time Monday, June 18th 2018, 9h30-18h45

Place : Waseda University, International Conference Center (3rd floor)

Language : English (no translation)

Admission : free and open to everyone

Contact : Prof. Sylvain Detey (detey@waseda.jp)

SILS Office (sils-soumu@list.waseda.jp)

Hosting : School of International Liberal Studies –Waseda University

9h20-9h30 Opening of the Symposium

Sylvain Detey, Associate Dean for International Affairs, SILS, Waseda University

9h30-9h40 Welcoming speech

Norimasa Morita, Vice-President for International Affairs, Waseda University

9h40-10h10 Keynote speech

Christine Musselin, Vice-President for Research, Sciences Po, CNRS, CNRS (France)

Future trends in comparative higher education

10h30-12h00 Panel 1

International identities, plurilingualism and comparatism in higher education – Chair: C. Musselin

10h30-10h45 Ana Llinares, Faculty of Philosophy and Arts, Autonomous University of Madrid (Spain)

The broadened scope of CLIL in Spain: from improving students' English competence levels to internationalization at different levels

10h45-11h00 Zhaohua Dong, School of International Studies, Peking University (China)

Globalization and localization: international communication in a globalized world

11h00-11h15 Sem Vermeersch, Department of Religious Studies, Seoul National University (South Korea)

Teaching and communicating Korean studies internationally – Experiences from Seoul National University

11h15-11h30 Adrian Pinnington, School of International Liberal Studies, Waseda University (Japan)

Foreign language education in a globalizing world: a Japanese viewpoint

11h30-12h00 Discussion

12h00-13h00 Lunch Reception

13h15-14h45 Panel 2

From research to education in a plurilingual CLIL context – Chair: S. Detey

13h15-13h30 Xavier Mellet (French Studies), SILS, Waseda University

13h30-13h45 Ignacio Jose Miñambres Garcia (Spanish Studies), SILS, Waseda University

13h45-14h00 Cairen Zhuoma (Chinese Studies), SILS, Waseda University

14h00-14h15 Hyung Jin Lee (Korean Studies), SILS, Waseda University

14h15-14h45 Discussion

15h00-15h20 Guest speech

Keiichi Imamura (Managing Director, NHK World-Japan)

The role of media in today's multipolar world and NHK WORLD -JAPAN

15h20-17h00 Panel 3

International identities through study-abroad – Chair: X. Mellet

15h20-15h40 French studies group

15h40-16h00 Spanish studies group

16h00-16h20 Chinese studies group

16h20-16h40 Korean studies group

16h40-17h00 Discussion

17h15-18h30 Panel 4

Promoting plurilingualism in Japan through cultural institutes – Chair: S. Mato

17h15-17h30 Maxence Robin, Attaché for the promotion of French language at the French Embassy in Tokyo – Institut Français du Japon

Institut français du Japon, promoting the French language on the occasion of the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games: a professional perspective

17h30-17h45 Javier Rodríguez, Director of courses, Instituto Cervantes

Plurilingualism and pluriculturalism in the Cervantes Institute curriculum plan

17h45-18h00 Zhiping Hu, Minister-Counselor, Education Section of the Embassy of the People's Republic of China in Japan

The Confucius Institute and the development of overseas Chinese language education

18h00-18h15 Jaeho Han, Director of Tokyo office, Korea Foundation

The role of the Korea Foundation in Korean language education overseas

18h15-18h30 Discussion

18h30-18h35 Closing speech

Shigeko Mato, School of International Liberal Studies, Waseda University (Japan)