

Application for the exemption of Japanese Language Courses (Applicable to SP2 students)

Conditions for the exemption

Those who fulfill the following conditions can apply for the exemption from taking Japanese Language Courses:

- Those who have a score of CJL Level Check Test Level 6; The required credits will be 12 from 24.
- Those who have a score of CJL Level Check Test Level 7 plus the passing score of “Listening Test and Reading Test”; The required credits will be 0.
- Those who pass the N1 level of JLPT; The required credits will be 0.

* If you are exempted from taking Japanese Language Courses, you must make up for the credits by taking other classes as Electives, and the credits that you have already acquired will be counted as Electives.

You can apply for those additional tests on CJL website, after obtaining CJL Level Check Test Level 7 score through the website of the CJL Level Check Test. This test is available only in March and September, right before the semester starts. Students are allowed to take the test once every semester. The standard for the exemption is the actual score, not the percentage of the result.

How to apply for the exemption

A. with the CJL Level Check Test

Print out the CJL Level Check Test score report and submit it to the SILS office with the form on the next page.

Refer to the following document for further detail of the test;
