

JUNE 5TH 2025
ADMISSION FREE

SYMPOSIUM ON INCLUSIVE PEACE

POWER-SHARING IN ETHNICALLY DIVIDED SOCIETIES

ONO AZUSA
INTERNATIONAL
CONFERENCE ROOM

WASEDA UNIVERSITY

JUNE 5th 2025 10:40 AM - 17:00 PM | ADMISSION FREE

Symposium on Inclusive Peace

Power-Sharing in Ethnically Divided Societies

 Ono Azusa International Conference Room, Waseda University

10:40 Opening

11:00 Session 1: Theoretical discussion

1. Power-Sharing Peace Settlements: Hard to Love, Difficult to Change

Allison McCulloch (Brandon University) and Joanne McEvoy (University of Aberdeen)

2. Descriptive vs Substantive Representation in Post Conflict Societies

Edward Morgan-Jones (University of Kent), Raluca Popp (University of Kent), Laura Sudulich (University of Essex)

13:10 Session 2: Case studies

3. How do Actors Perceive Power-Sharing and the Inclusion of Citizens in the Decision-making Process in New Caledonia?

Anthony Tutugoro (University of New Caledonia)

4. Adaptability of Power-Sharing Agreements and Citizens' Preferences: Lessons from Bosnia and Herzegovina

Valentino Grbavac (Brandon University)

15:05 Session 3 Citizens Inclusion in Power Sharing

5. Conflict Exposure and Attitudes towards Peace Settlements

Neophytos Loizides (University of Warwick), Sadi Shanaah (University of Warwick), Aimee Smith (University of Warwick)

6. Shaping Sustainable Peace: Citizen Perspectives on Settlements Design

Edward Morgan-Jones (University of Kent), Raluca Popp (University of Kent), Laura Sudulich (University of Essex)

17:00 Closing

