

BOOK LAUNCH & TALK SESSION

EVENT OVERVIEW

Waseda University and Stateless Network will host the Japan launch of Statelessness in Asia (Cambridge University Press, 2025). This volume offers the first comprehensive interdisciplinary study of statelessness in Asia and provides new comparative insights into the issue. The event will include an introductory talk by co-editor Dr. Christoph Sperfeldt and will be followed by comments from a discussant.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Dr. Christoph Sperfeldt is a Senior Lecturer and ARC DECRA Fellow at Macquarie University, specializing in statelessness and legal/digital identification in Southeast Asia. He is affiliated with Stanford University and the Peter McMullin Centre on Statelessness, and previously worked with the Asian International Justice Initiative and GIZ in Cambodia.

Nov.26.2025

time: 5:30PM-7:00PM
place: Waseda Univ. Building 11, Room 604

registration form ↓

Organizers : Chen's Seminar SILS
Waseda University,
Stateless Network,
Stateless Network Youth

