Common Rules

You will upload PDF versions of the original/certified documents and certificates to follow our online application process. Refer to the application guide for further details.

- Score certificate(s) for the following tests must be sent directly from the testing institutions: SAT, ACT, IBDP Final Grades, TOEFL iBT and IELTS Academic. Since all Waseda University's undergraduate programs have access to test scores sent through the designated method, you are not required to order scores for each program if you are applying to multiple Waseda University undergraduate programs at the same time.
- Certificates issued in English are accepted. If they are originally issued in any other language, attach an English translation to the original. The translation must be prepared either by the issuing institution (e.g., your high school), a translation agency, or other appropriate offices officially approved by the government. Notarization of the translation is not required.
- If the final grades of a standardized test are available at the time of application, predicted grades will not be accepted. Please submit the final grades.

Notes on Standardized Tests

- Submit the test results of SAT or ACT if you fall under the following categories;
 - the results of your country's/region's standardized test will be released after the deadline
 - there is no national standardized test in your country/region

Acceptable English Language Proficiency Test

- TOEFL iBT
- IELTS Academic
- IELTS for UKVI Academic
