

Application for Resumption of Course(s) Deferred in a Previous Semester

If students wish to resume enrollment in a course they left halfway through (such as for a study-abroad program), they are required to fill in the appropriate application form during the designated period. Eligible students should read the instructions below and take the necessary steps.

■Link to the Application Form

Click the following URL and fill in the necessary information.

<https://my.waseda.jp/application/detail/application-detail?communityContentLinkId=670858732>

※You can access the application form using this QR code

- An application is needed for each course. If students apply to resume enrollment in two or more courses, an application for each course is required.
- Students need to refer to the web syllabus in order to acquire the information needed for filling in the application form. If incorrect information is provided, the application(s) may not be accepted.
- Once an application form has been sent, no change or revision can be made. Should students wish to revise an application form after applying (that is, after clicking the “Save” button), they should consult the Educational Planning Section.

■Application Schedule

0:00 a.m., Wednesday, February 25 through 11:59 p.m., Friday February 27

- No applications can be accepted after the designated period.

■Applicable Courses

Applications can only be made for courses for which students have received prior approval to leave halfway through. Note that this system is not applicable to all courses.
