

JCuIP OS Q&A

① I'd graduated / am scheduled to graduate from the high school which follows the education system other than Japan, but I hold a Japanese nationality.

In this case, which category should I apply for?

→Nationality does not influence the application category. Even if you hold a Japanese nationality, if you 'd graduated / are scheduled to graduate from the high school which follows the education system other than Japan, please apply as an "Overseas Students".

② Is there a category whose enrollment date is April?

→In the case of "Japanese Students" category, the enrollment date is only April, and in the case of "Overseas Students" category, the enrollment date is only September.

③ Is it possible to get admission to other course of School of Culture, Media and Society or School of Humanities and Social Sciences through the application and document screening for JCuIP?

→You cannot enter other course or schools. You can only enter JCuIP through this screening, but after you enter JCuIP, you can somewhat take lectures in other courses and other schools.

④ Are SAT subject tests required?

→Not required.

⑤ What is the average score of SAT, ACT, TOEFL etc of the successful applicants?

→Sorry but we don't disclose such data.

⑥ Are there any required score in applying for this program regarding SAT, ACT, TOEFL etc?

→There is no required score for all tests.

⑦ Do you accept the SAT Superscore?

→We don't adopt Superscore.

⑧ Is the score of SAT, ACT, TOEFL, IELTS must be sent directly from the organization?

→Yes. It must be sent directly from the organization. As for TEAP and Eiken, there is no need for scores to be sent directly from the organization. It can be sent by you with other application documents.

Also, as for TOEFL and IELTS we accept the score sent in the form of data as well as the paper.

⑨ I took SAT ten years ago. Can I submit the scores which I got at the time?

→You cannot submit the score taken in ten years ago. Please submit the score taken during the valid period we designated.

⑩ Can I submit the Advanced Placement as the results of University entrance qualification exam or other standardized test?

→No. Advanced Placement cannot be regarded as the University entrance qualification exam or other standardized test.

⑪ I cannot submit the result of University entrance qualification exam or other standardized test due to the timing of getting the result.

→Please take SAT or ACT and submit the scores of it. If you have difficulty for that, please contact our office : toyama-adm@list.wased.jp

⑫ I have an experience to go to an overseas university (=other than Japan), so is it OK not to submit the results of University entrance qualification exam or other standardized test?

→Even if you have an experience to go to an overseas university, it is still mandatory to submit the results of University entrance qualification exam or other standardized test.

⑬ I cannot find my country in “List of Application documents by Education System”.

→Please contact out office : toyama-adm@list.waseda.jp

⑭ Is the recommendation letter required?

→Not required. You don't need to prepare it.

⑮ What is the “Entrance Examination Card”?

→It is for informing you that your application process is exactly done and informing you about your application number. Please note that it is not the “announcement of admission” .

⑯ Is there an interview test?

→No interview test. There is only documents screening.

⑰ Is it mandatory to take the courses for learning Japanese Language?

→As a general rule, it is mandatory but depending on your Japanese level, there is a case that you can be exempted from it.

⑱ I want to know the details of the scholarship.

→Please refer to the following website.

<http://www.waseda.jp/inst/cie/en/life/aid>

① I want to know the details of the dormitory.

→ Please refer to the following website.

<https://www.waseda.jp/inst/rlc/en/>