Treatment of Personal Data by Waseda University

Waseda University ("Waseda"), being fully aware that the protection of personal data is a basic requirement derived from human dignity, established the "Regulations on Privacy and Data Protection" in May 1995 and has taken strict care in its handling of personal data. As the "Law concerning Protection of Private Information (Privacy Law)" came into force in its entirety on April 1, 2005, Waseda will continuously endeavor to comply with the law and control and manage personal data in a safe and adequate manner.

1. Collection of Personal Data and Purpose of Use of Personal Data

Personal data means any information relating to a student, guardian, faculty or staff member or other individual in which that individual is identified or identifiable. Waseda will collect only such personal data as is deemed necessary for education and research, student assistance, or university administration, for the following purposes. In addition, Waseda may communicate with the student or the guardian based on the collected personal data if necessary.

<Purpose of Use>

- Management of student registration, management of changes in student registration, health management, scholarship management;
- (ii) Registration for courses, management of student results, class management;
- (iii) Management of information on internal admission to the undergraduate or graduate school or change of school, or careers after graduation:
- (iv) Issuance of student identification cards or various certificates;
- (v) Management of tuition and fees information, management of account information;
- (vi) Assistance in student life and extracurricular activities;
- (vii) Preparation and management of job related information;
- (viii) Management of use of facilities and equipment within the university, management of security camera footage;
- (ix) Management of library use information;
- (x) Dispatch of the academic transcript and information regarding the student's academic standing to the guardian;
- (xi) Consultation with the guardian on the student's results or course selection;
- (xii) Public relations magazines of the university and affiliated schools, information on events, announcements relating to fundraising for the university;
- (xiii) Dispatch of various information to graduates;
- (xiv) Provision of information to partner universities based on academic exchange agreements or such other arrangements;
- (xv) Provision of necessary information to Student Health Insurance Union (Gakusei Kenko Hoken Kumiai) of Waseda University (Administrator: Administrative Director, Student Affairs Division);
- (xvi) Provision of necessary information to Waseda University Alumni Association (Administrator: President of Waseda);
- (xvii) Provision of necessary information to the academic organizations (Administrator: Dean of each school) composed of students and faculty within the undergraduate or graduate school to which the student belongs;
- (xviii) Provision of necessary information to the Faculty and Staff Union for the purpose of promoting public grants;
- (xix) If applicable, management of on-campus employment, payment of wages and allowances;
- (xx) Improvement of Waseda University's educational and research programs, entrance examinations and student recruitment activities; and
- (xxi) Verification of identity, based on student submitted photos and their scanned data, required to process internal administrative procedures as well as to enable a variety of web-based services offered within the university.

2. Safe Keeping of Personal Data

Waseda will strictly keep personal data secure from unauthorized use, loss, destruction, falsification and leakage, and will provide education and training for personal data management to the faculty, staff or other persons engaged in the affairs of Waseda who handle personal data.

3. Provision of Personal Data to a Third Party

Waseda will not provide personal data to a third party without the consent of the data subject unless any of the exceptions defined in the Law and Rule applies.

4. Outsourcing of University Operations to a Third Party

Waseda University may entrust all or parts of bulk-mailing or data entry operations to a third party. In such a case, Waseda University requires the third party (through a contract and other means) to handle personal data adequately and appropriately so that the personal data will not be leaked, lost, or misused.

5. Disclosure and Correction of Personal Data

The student and guardian may request disclosure or correction of personal data at the affiliated school, any undergraduate or graduate school to which the student belongs, or such other place where personal data is kept.
