Once you have submitted a copy of this document to the Administrative Office of the Faculty of Letters, Arts and Sciences, you will receive a full reimbursement for the screening fee after enrollment.

(4) Return of Application Documents and Refund of Screening Fee

As a general rule, documents once submitted will not be returned and the screening fee will not be refunded. However, in the following cases, the screening fee alone will be refunded in full or in part.

- | |
|--|
| <ol style="list-style-type: none">1) You paid the screening fee but did not submit the application documents.2) You paid the screening fee but submitted the application documents after the deadline.3) You paid the screening fee and submitted the application documents, but your application was not accepted because it was incomplete or did not meet the eligibility criteria. If the screening fee was paid by credit card, or if the refund is to be deposited into a bank account outside of Japan, you will be responsible for any fees incurred in connection with the refund. |
|--|

The Administrative Office of the Faculty of Letters, Arts and Sciences will contact those who are eligible. Note that if you do not apply by the designated date specified by the office, your screening fee will not be refunded.

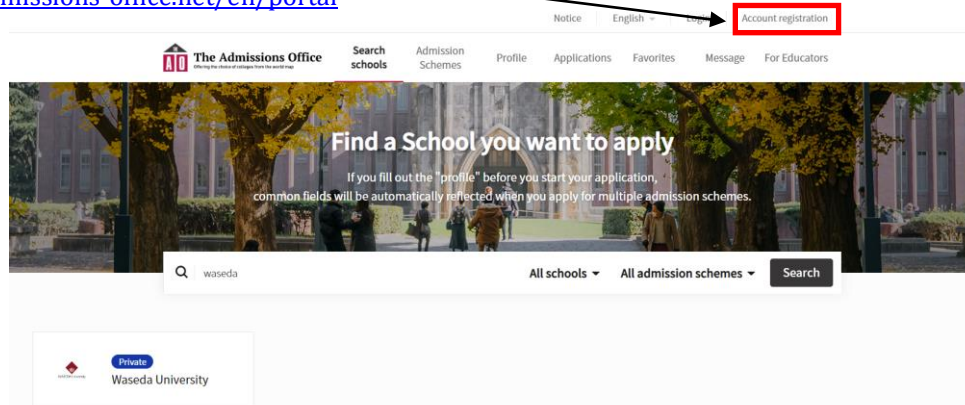

4) Submission of Application Documents

(1) How to Submit

Application documents must be submitted through the designated online application system, “The Admissions Office (hereinafter TAO)”. The TAO will be available for entry after the first day of application period. Please make sure to complete your application (click the Submit button) within the application period.

1. Access the link below and click “Account registration” to start preparing your application.

<https://admissions-office.net/en/portal>

2. Create your account with the legal name in alphabet written on your passport (If you do not possess a passport at the time of application, use the name in the certificate of family register or citizenship).
* You do not need to create the “Profile” to apply for this admission. The Administrative Office of the Faculty of Letters, Arts and Sciences does not use the information filled in this section (You are required to input your personal information in “Applicant Information” section of online application form).
3. After creating your TAO account, find “Global Japanese Literary and Cultural Studies Doctoral Program for April (September) 2025 Entry” from the “Admission Scheme” menu and start your application.
4. Follow the detailed instructions shown on the system and these Application Guidelines, when filling out or uploading the materials.
* Note that Waseda University uses several other application systems for other admissions schemes. To prevent confusion, make sure that you access TAO at the above link.

Click on the name of the application document to enter the respective information. Make sure to click “content confirmation” and “Complete my application” button to submit your application.

Make sure to confirm your application status has been changed from “Application in progress” to “Application completed”.

Make sure to click “Complete the Application” button to submit your application. Once your application has completed, you cannot modify or update any information you have entered. Failure to complete submission will result in your documents not being screened.

(2) Notes on the Completion of Application Documents

- By creating your account on TAO, you agree to the “Terms of Use” and “Handling of Personal Information” designed by TAO Co., Ltd., the service provider of TAO.
- It is very important that you check “Message” on TAO and your registered e-mail account regularly, since the Administrative Office of the Faculty of Letters, Arts and Sciences may contact you concerning your application. Be sure to add our sending domains (@list.waseda.jp and @admissions-office.net) to your list of accepted e-mail senders to ensure that you receive our e-mail.
- The Administrative Office of the Faculty of Letters, Arts and Sciences will not be responsible for any consequences caused by the applicants’ failure to receive, read, and/or reply to the messages sent from our office and any malfunction of the network, PC, or other device that prevents the application from being submitted in time.
- Complete the application by the application deadline by clicking “Complete my application” button on TAO. No applications are received after the deadline. So, secure the sufficient time before application.
- Please check carefully your input and uploaded files (whether most updated/appropriate content) before you finally submit the application. Cannot replace them after submission. Insufficient or incomplete documents will lead to the forfeit of the right to be considered for selection. Please take the necessary precautions to ensure that all documents are submitted.
- Enrollment documents of successful applicants will be sent to the email address registered on the form.
- On TAO, you will upload digital(scanned) copies of original/certified documents and certificates to follow our online application process. However, later as part of our enrollment procedures, successful applicants will be required to prove its originality either by submitting their original/certified documents and certificates by post, having their official versions sent by e-mail from the issuing organization, or using digital credential services. If you are unable to do so by the designated deadline, you will be considered to have failed to meet our enrollment qualifications. Discrepancies may be considered as falsification/fabrication of application documents, and your admission may be revoked. For more details, refer to P.15 3) Entrance Procedures.
- Only documents in Japanese or English are acceptable. Documents in other languages must be translated at either an embassy or a recognized notary.
 - Some countries and regions do not provide notarized translations at embassies in Japan (e.g., China). In such cases, please use a service of that country. Please allow sufficient time.
 - For applicants graduating from a Chinese educational institution, notarized translations may be obtained from the China Credentials Verification service in either Beijing or Japan. Please refer to the following URLs:
China Credentials Verification URL: <http://www.chsi.com.cn/>
China Credentials Verification (Japan) URL: <http://www.chsi.jp/>

K: Copy of Your passport

- P.2 3) Applicant Eligibility Applicants in category 2 or 4 need to submit.
 - However, applicants holding Japanese nationality or a special resident's permit do not need to submit.
- Submit the pages bearing your photograph, name, passport number, and expiry date.

L: Copy of Your Residence Card or Certificate of Residence

- Regarding applicants in P.2 3) Applicant Eligibility category 2 or 4 Domestic Applicants holding non-Japanese nationality should obtain a copy of the appropriate document indicating residence status from the relevant authority in their area of residence. Short-stay visas are not acceptable. Provide copies of both sides of your residence card or certificate of residence.
- For Domestic Applicants, there are cases where the residence status may change according to individual circumstances and the current resident permission cannot be extended or renewed. The university is not responsible for the renewal or extension of your resident's permission after admission. For further details on the residency management system, contact the Immigration Bureau or the nearest ward/city office and make the necessary arrangements by yourself.

M: Letter of Recommendation

- Applicants should request 3 letters of recommendation. Ask separate recommenders to prepare one letter of recommendation each.
- Letters of recommendation will be evaluated individually.
 - ◇ As a rule, one of the letters should be from your supervisor at your most recent institution.
 - ◇ The letter should be from a university academic or other person suitably qualified to evaluate the applicant academically.
- Enter the e-mail address of the recommender from the "Request" button to make a request, then the e-mail will be sent to the recommender from TAO. According to the e-mail, the recommenders should create an account of TAO and upload the letter of recommendation directly on TAO.

- The letter should be from a university academic or other person suitably qualified to evaluate the applicant academically.
- Make sure that the e-mail addresses of the recommenders are officially used for their occupations. Refrain from using free e-mail addresses provided by internet service providers.
- For April Admission applicants, all letters of recommendation must have been written after April 1, 2024. For September Admission applicants, all letters of recommendation must have been written after September 21, 2024.
- These letters must be written in either English or Japanese. Letters written in any language aside from these must be translated into either English or Japanese.
- The letter that evaluates only language ability will not be accepted.
- The format is free. The designated format is also available on the website of GLAS.
- The application cannot be completed until the “Completion status” changed to “submitted”. Applicants are responsible for arranging for letters of recommendation from recommenders to be submitted by the application deadline.

(5) Falsification of Documents

You may be deemed to have committed a dishonest act if you falsified, fabricated, plagiarized, or modified a document, material, or information submitted in your application. In such a case, any decision taken regarding your application may later be invalidated, without the application documents and screening fee being returned.

(6) Handling of Personal Information

Waseda University will use the personal information (address, name, date of birth, etc.) collected at the time of application to discharge duties relating to entrance examinations, announcement of successful applicants, enrollment procedures, and other related work. In doing so, the University will take necessary and appropriate measures to prevent the leakage, outflow, or unauthorized use of such information. The University may outsource all or part of the above-stated items. In such cases, the University will oblige, by contract or other means, the subcontracted entity or entities to perform necessary and appropriate management of the information. The University may inquire about the authenticity, etc., of documents, materials, theses, and information, etc., submitted to the University (hereafter “Submitted Documents”) by providing them to the issuers, providers, theses review entities, etc. By submitting or providing the Submitted Documents to the University, the applicant agrees to the University’s right to make such inquiries. Personal information that has been statistically processed, keeping individual identities confidential, will be used as material for surveys and research for the University’s admission selection processes.

3. Selection Process

1) Notification of Examination Admission Card and Selection Processes Information

- Applicants whose applications have been accepted will be able to view and print their Examination Admission Card on TAO by the following dates. In addition, Selection Processes Information will be sent to you via the message function of TAO.
April Admission January 10, 2025
September Admission July 4, 2025
- Print your Examination Admission Card by yourself and be sure to carry it with you on the day of the examination. Please keep in mind that you will also need it when you receive your student ID card after enrollment.

2) Selection Process, Schedule, and Place

(1) First Stage (Document screening)

- Those documents submitted at the time of your application will be screened.
- Refer to P.15 1) Announcement of Successful Applicants for information regarding the announcement of successful applicants.

(2) Second Stage (Interview)

April Admission January 28 or 30, 2025 (Either one day designated by the GLAS)

September Admission July 12, 2025

- Only those applicants passing the document screening stage are eligible.
- If the country of your residence is different from that at the time of application, inform the Administrative Office of the Faculty of Letters, Arts and Sciences of current country of your residence by noon of the day after the announcement of successful applicants of the First stage.
- The interview will be conducted using a web-based video conference system ("Zoom"). It is not necessary to come to the University on the day of the interview.
- Details such as the meeting time and interview start time will be sent only to those who have passed the first round of the screening, via the message function of TAO by the day before the second stage of the examination.
- The University may record the interview for screening purposes.
- Recording by the applicant is strictly prohibited.
- Make sure that the environment described below is available for you to sit for the interview. Any expenses incurred to prepare necessary equipment and environment is the responsibility of the applicant.
 - Internet connection
Please ensure a stable internet connection. A wired LAN system with cables is recommended to ensure a stable connection.
 - Audio and video equipment
Please prepare a web camera, microphone, earphones, speakers, etc. You may use the equipment built into your personal computer or other equipment. We recommend the use of a computer, but smartphones and tablets are also acceptable. Please participate in the Zoom test meeting (<http://zoom.us/test>) in advance to confirm the audio and video functioning/quality.
 - Location and interview time
Please secure a room with the above-mentioned equipment where you can maintain a quiet environment with no third parties around you. The start time of the interview will be designated by the University. Please note that we cannot accommodate individual requests. Applicants will be considered absent when arriving 20 minutes after the scheduled interview time.
 - Troubleshooting and precautions on the day
If it is deemed difficult to conduct the interview owing to unforeseen circumstances such as Internet disconnection, the University will contact you by e-mail at the contact address registered in TAO. Please follow our instructions under these circumstances. If the applicant does not respond to our contact or does not follow our instructions, they may be deemed to have abandoned the examination. If the applicant leaves their seat during the interview, they may be deemed to have abandoned the examination. In these cases, the application fee will not be refunded.
- Failure to observe the following precautions may be considered cheating:
The only items that can be placed around you are the examination slip, writing apparatus, notepad, plain handkerchief, and tissue paper out of a box or a bag.
 - Cautions regarding Zoom
 - Please make sure that the Zoom video and audio are always "on" and that your entire face is always visible on screen.

- Please do not use any communication devices other than those used for the interview. Do not search for information or use any applications or tools other than Zoom on the device being used for the interview.
- Do not use the virtual background and blur background function of Zoom.
- To ensure that there are no third parties around you, you may be asked to move the camera to view the entire room before, during, and after the interview. In such cases, please follow the instructions.
- Please remove your mask during the interview.
- Please refer to the following website for instructions on how to operate Zoom.

3) Notes

(1) Waseda University Code of Misconduct

Waseda University has established the following precautions to ensure that the entrance examination is conducted in a strict manner, and that all applicants may take the examination fairly and impartially. Please read these precautions carefully before taking the entrance examination, and approach the examination with the appropriate attitude of seriousness.

1. Any falsification, fabrication, plagiarism, modification, etc., of documents, materials, or information submitted to the University at the time of application may be considered misconduct.
2. The following acts constitute misconduct:
 - (1) Cheating (e.g., concealing or using cheat sheets, reference books, etc., during the examination, looking at other examinees' answer sheets, etc., seeking answers from other examinees, taking notes on one's body, objects, desk, etc. and referring to them.)
 - (2) Any action that benefits another examinee or other examinees, such as communicating the answers to a question, etc., during the examination.
 - (3) Holding or using mobile phones, etc., during the examination.
 - (4) Enabling any sounds (incoming calls, alarms, vibrating sounds, etc.) on mobile phones, etc., and watches during the examination.
 - (5) Behavior that disturbs other examinees in the examination room.
 - (6) Failure to follow the instructions of an examination supervisor, etc., at the examination site.
 - (7) Having any person other than the applicant herself/himself impersonate the applicant and take the examination.
 - (8) Any and all other acts that may impair the fairness of the examination.
3. If misconduct is suspected, the University may respond as follows. Failure to comply with these actions may be considered an admission of wrongdoing.
 - An examination supervisor, etc., may give examinees a warning or inquire about the circumstances.
 - The applicant may be requested to take the examination in a different seat or room.
 - The University may inquire about the authenticity, etc., of documents, materials, theses, and information, etc. submitted to the University (hereafter "Submitted Documents") by providing them to the issuers, providers, theses review entities, etc. By submitting or providing the Submitted Documents to the University, the applicant agrees to the University's right to make such inquiries
4. The following actions may be taken in the case of confirmed misconduct.
 - The applicant will not be permitted to take any entrance examination of the University in the relevant academic year (screening fees will not be refunded).
 - The results of all entrance examinations of the University for the relevant academic year shall be null and void.

If, after enrollment, a student is found to have committed misconduct, he/she may be subject to a range of disciplinary actions up to and including expulsion from the University, in accordance with the University's rules and regulations.

In cases of misconduct that Waseda University find it vicious and serious, the University may report to the police or contact the dishonest individual's guardians etc. or/and university guardians etc.

(2) Unforeseen Circumstances that are beyond Human Control (Force Majeure Events)

In the event of a natural disaster— such as typhoons, floods, earthquakes, tsunamis, etc.—fires, power outages, an unstable internet connection, or other force majeure accidents or transportation disruptions, measures including delaying the start and end of the exam or postponing the exam, etc. may be taken. However, in such an event, the University will not be liable for any inconvenience, expense, or other personal damage incurred by examinees as a result of such measures.
