Application Guidelines for Emergency Scholarship for International Students

“Emergency Scholarship for International Students” is the scholarship to support international students whose family’s financial circumstances have changed suddenly and who have difficulty in continuing their studies because of sudden changes in financial circumstances such as their financial supporter’s loss of job, bankruptcy, sickness, death, natural disaster, or other emergency reasons.

Please read the guidelines carefully and follow the procedures listed below if you want to apply for this scholarship. If you pass the screening and are elected as a grantee, you will receive the scholarship.

(For Your Information: Acceptance situation of last winter)

Number of Applicants 33 → Number of Grantees 13

1. Eligibility: Students who meet all the following three requirements (1) through (3)

(1) At the time when students apply, the reason of sudden changes in their family’s financial circumstances has happened within the past ONE year (January 2013- December 2013).

(2) Students who are recognized that it is difficult for them to continue their studies.

(3) Students who are in regular course and will be able to graduate within standard course term (for undergraduate school) or are on the grade of standard course term (for graduate school).

※ Students whose resident status is “permanent resident” (eijusha), “special permanent resident” (tokubetsu eijusha), “long-term resident”(teijusha), “spouse of a Japanese resident”, “spouse of a permanent resident”, or “spouse of a special permanent resident” are not eligible for this scholarship.

They are eligible to apply for “校友会給付緊急奨学金”. Please read the guidelines of that scholarship.

【NOTICE】 Sudden changes which happened more than 1 year ago are not accepted.

※ 1 Definitions of Sudden changes in family’s financial circumstances are listed below.

Students come under “sudden changes in family’s financial circumstances” if they meet one of the following conditions.

1. A main provider of the household (either father or mother whose income is higher than the others, or the one who supports family’s finance instead of them) has lost his/her job because of the bankruptcy of the company or dismissal from the company, or has taken early retirement because of company’s circumstances (it is also included that his/her income has decreased considerably though he/she is re-employed).

2. A main provider of the household dies or separates from student’s family.

3. A main provider of the household has bankrupted.

4. Household spending has increased considerably, or household income has decreased considerably because of sickness, accidents, bankruptcy of the company, decline of the company, or other reasons that cause the sudden changes of family’s finance.

5. Household spending has increased considerably, or household income has decreased considerably because of disasters such as fire, storm damage, flood, earthquake, and other disasters.

※ 2 Students can re-apply for this scholarship with same reasons if they meet the requirements.

However, they will not be re-elected with the same reasons.
