[Handling of Personal Information]

Waseda University will use the personal information (address, name, date of birth, etc.) collected at the time of application to discharge duties relating to entrance examinations, announcement of successful applicants, enrollment procedures, and other related work. In doing so, the University will take necessary and appropriate measures to prevent the leakage, outflow, or unauthorized use of such information. The University may outsource all or part of the above-stated items. In such cases, the University will oblige, by contract or other means, the subcontracted entity or entities to perform necessary and appropriate management of the information. The University may inquire about the authenticity, etc., of documents, materials, theses, and information, etc., submitted to the University (hereafter “Submitted Documents”) by providing them to the issuers, providers, theses review entities, etc. By submitting or providing the Submitted Documents to the University, the applicant agrees to the University’s right to make such inquiries. Personal information that has been statistically processed, keeping individual identities confidential, will be used as material for surveys and research for the University’s admission selection processes.

[Handling of Gender Information]

For the sake of administering entrance exams in an efficient manner and carrying out enrollment procedures, Waseda University collects information regarding your sex on legal documents such as family register or passport. The information is collected only for reasonably justifiable purposes, and these cases are limited to a minimum. If your sex is marked as neither male nor female on the legal documents, please contact at gsp-admission@list.waseda.jp prior to admission. The information does not affect the screening result.

In these Application Guidelines, the term “mobile phones, etc.,” indicates all electronic devices with communication functions, such as mobile and smart phones, tablets, wearable devices, etc.

I. About Admissions

1. Introduction

In order to provide multilayered, comprehensive and flexible guidance, the Political Science Program offers individual guidance by your advisor as well as joint guidance by all professors in each research area.

Applicants of Political Science Program are required to fill in their preferred advisor and research area on their research plan when applying. This preference will be reviewed as a reference when it is time to decide their supervisor and research area.

Political Science Program

Research Area	Major research area	Overview
Political Methodology & Analysis	Quantitative Analysis, Formal modeling, Political behavior, Political communication, Political methodology	We explore various theories of contemporary political science and analyze contemporary Japanese politics, as well as conduct comparative analyses of developed countries. This includes the development and exploration of analytical methods, as well as the theory and analysis of politics, voting behavior, and political communication.
Political Thought and Political History	Political Thought, History of Political Thought, Constitutions, Japanese Political History, History of Japanese Political Thought, Western Political History	This research area explores the history of political thought of the West and of Japan, together with modern normative political theory. The distinguishing feature of this set of programs is that they study constitutions closely related to political history and political philosophy.
Comparative Politics	Comparative Politics, Regional Studies	This research area analyzes global politics from a comparative as well as a historical point of view. A wide variety of approaches, including the positive approach, is applied to analyzing contemporary world politics within a global context and from the perspective of Japan's place in the world.
International Relations	International Politics, International Relations	Students in this research area specialize in international politics, theories of international relations, history of international politics, or diplomatic history. They apply their knowledge to analyzing the current state of international relations. The research methodology is a distinguishing feature of programs in this area in that it approaches the discipline of international relations from a global perspective and explores the subject from historical, ideological, and theoretical points of view.

The image is a screenshot of a web application interface. On the left, there is a sidebar titled 'Prepared by applicant' containing a list of items, each with a red checkmark icon: 'Applicant's Information *', 'Research Plan *', 'Educational background *', 'Work Experience *', 'Academic Transcript *', 'Certificate of Graduation (Diploma) / Degree Certificate *', and 'English Proficiency *'. Below this list is a black button with white text that says 'content confirmation'. A red arrow points from this button to a text box on the right. The text box contains the following text: 'Click on the name of the application form to enter its contents. The application is not complete until it is displayed as "Application in progress". Click on the "content confirmation" button to check all the documents. Finally, click on the "Complete my application" button to confirm that your application is complete. Be careful not to forget to press the button.' Another red arrow points from this text box to a button at the bottom right of the page. The main content area of the page has a light gray background and contains the text 'Please check all the documents again.' followed by a red checkmark icon and the text 'Yes, I have checked.' At the bottom of the page, there are two buttons: a white button with a gray border labeled 'Continue editing' and a black button with white text labeled 'Complete my application'.

2) Important Notes

- Please complete your application at TAO by the deadline of the application period. We will not accept applications that remain in the "Application in progress" status after the application deadline. In addition, depending on the program or category for which you are applying, some documents (such as recommendation letters) may need to be sent by post. Please make sure that these documents are received by the Graduate School by the deadline of the application period.
- The Graduate School will contact you through the message function on TAO or to your registered email address. Please check the message box on TAO or your registered email address periodically.
- Digital copies of the documents (diplomas, transcripts, etc.) to be submitted on TAO at the time of application are acceptable, but the original documents must be submitted at the time of admission. Please note that if you are unable to submit the original certificates by the deadline of the admission procedure, or if the contents of the digital copies are different from the ones submitted at the time of application, the admission procedure will be considered incomplete, and you will not be admitted.
- If you change your address, phone number, email address, etc., registered with TAO after your application, please contact the Graduate School office immediately.
- Applications will not be accepted if even a single incomplete or missing document is found in the application. Please make sure that you have all the necessary documents before submitting your application.
- You may be deemed to have committed a dishonest act if you falsified, fabricated, plagiarized, or modified a document, material, or information submitted in your application. In such a case, any decision taken regarding your application may later be invalidated, without the application documents and screening fee being returned.
- The documents that can be submitted must be written in Japanese or English. For certificates and other documents written in languages other than Japanese or English, please upload to TAO a translation (in Japanese or English) that has been notarized by an embassy or a notary public approved by the government.
- Some countries/regions do not have their translations notarized by embassies in Japan (e.g., China). In such cases, you will need to have the documents translated and notarized in your home country, so please make arrangements well in advance.
- Waseda University will not be able to answer any questions about a student's visa status because that is under the jurisdiction of the Japanese Ministry of Justice. Please inquire at the Immigration Office if you have any questions regarding a visa.
- Even if applicants have a visa that remains valid until after admission when submitting their application documents, they may not be allowed to renew or change their visa after admission for technical reasons (for example, an applicant has ceased to engage in the activity for which their current visa was issued for more than three months without justifiable cause). Waseda University makes no guarantees regarding the change or renewal of visas after admission. Make sure that you contact the Immigration Bureau of Japan; application to the university is your own responsibility.

3) Application Materials

- Required application materials may differ depending on the applicants' various backgrounds.
Please make sure to confirm which materials you must submit by referring to the "List of Application Materials".
- Please check the file extensions (.png .jpeg .jpg .pdf, etc.) of the files that can be uploaded on the TAO screen. The maximum file size is 20MB per file.
- Please download the prescribed forms from GSPS website.

 1. Please upload a color photo taken within 3 months before the time of application. The requirements for the photo are as follows: A vertical to horizontal ratio of 4:3; borderless, must capture the upper body; must provide a front view with no hats, and must be taken against a plain background. As will be detailed later, as part of the enrollment procedure, you will be required to upload the same photo you submitted with your application. Therefore, please keep the file of the submitted photo until you complete the enrollment procedure.
 2. Photos taken while wearing scarves or sunglasses will not be accepted. However, if you would like to submit a photo of yourself wearing a head piece for medical or religious reasons, please contact us prior to submitting your application.
 3. The photo will be used for identity verification on the day of the oral examination. Therefore, we do not accept unclear photos such as snapshots or photos that make it difficult to identify the pictured individual or verify their identity owing to differences in hairstyle, etc.
 4. Please do not post-process or retouch the face portrait photo.
 5. Photographs taken and printed by individuals themselves using smartphones, etc., will not be accepted. Be sure to take an ID-quality photo (photo taken at an instant photo booth is acceptable).
 6. During the enrollment procedure, you will be required to upload a photo for your student ID card separately. Please use the same photo you submitted with your application. Please note that the photo uploaded during the enrollment procedure will be used as personal information in various student web portal services, and for identity verification in various on-campus procedures.

B: Research Plan etc.

[Research Plan]

- Upload the Research Plan with the prescribed form. The research plan with the prescribed form must be in about 2,500 words in English. The words originally on the form do not need to be considered as the number of words.
- Please select main advisors from those listed below with a "○" (= available) mark. If you select a faculty member other than "○" and/or sub-advisor, your application will be invalid.
https://www.waseda.jp/fpse/gsp/assets/uploads/2024/11/Research-Advisors-list_Sep2025_Eng.pdf
- Preferences 1 to 3 of the faculty advisors are required.
- After admission, the research guidance system will consist of one main advisor and one or no sub-advisor, depending on the applicant's preference. Although there is no guarantee that the applicant will be supervised by the applicant's preference, a main advisor will be assigned based on the stated preferences. GSPS will separately ask the applicants who have passed the entrance examination if they wish to be assigned a sub advisor, and will decide whether or not to assign a sub advisor after consultation with the main advisor and other faculty members.

[Academic Thesis (*Note 1)]

- Upload an academic paper written in Japanese or English about one theme. (e.g., Master's Thesis, refereed paper, etc.)
- Length: In principle, a paper written in Japanese should be about 20,000 to 40,000 characters. A paper written in English should be about 10,000 to 20,000 words.

(*Note 1) Students who plan to complete their master's degree at the Graduate School in September 2025 are not required to submit a master's thesis. The thesis you submit as your master's degree application thesis will be arranged by the Graduate School of Political Science office as an admission review document. However, if you wish to submit a different thesis than your master's thesis, please submit it as indicated above.

Regardless of the above, please note that all candidates are required to submit the [Outline of Academic Thesis] below.

[Outline of Academic Thesis]

- Upload the outline of academic thesis. The outline must describe the details of your academic thesis in about 5,000 words in Japanese, or 2,500 words in English.

[Assignments] *Internal applicants (*Note 1) are not required

- Upload the assignment with the prescribed form which must be in about 2,500 words in English for each section.

(*Note 1) "Internal applicants" are those who have completed our master's program at Graduate School of Political Science in the two years preceding the date of admission. In other words, for the September 2025 entrance examination, applicants whose completion date of the master's program at the Graduate School is March 2024 or later will be considered "internal applicants," and if they fall under this category, they are not required to submit the assignments.

(*Note 2) We will not be able to answer questions about how to write assignments to be submitted or about the details of the contents of the methodology programs. Please prepare them based on your own ideas from the information provided in the syllabus.

[Copy of the result letter of Analytical Methods Certification Examination at the Graduate School of Political Science] * Only for those who have passed the examination

- If you have taken the Analytical Methods Certification Examination while enrolled in the Master's program at the Graduate School of Political Science, please upload the notification of the result of the examination. However, only those that have passed the examination will be accepted.

C: Educational background

- Please fill in all educational institutions you have attended (including elementary schools, language schools, study abroad programs, etc.) in reverse chronological order.
- Up to 8 institutions will be listed, but if you need more space, please contact the Graduate School of Political Science office (gspas-admission@list.waseda.jp) in advance.

D: Employment information

- Please select whether or not you have experience working as a full-time worker.
- If you have experience, please follow the instructions on the TAO screen and fill in the required information.

E: Original copy of academic transcripts

- Please upload them on TAO.
- Submit transcripts which include all grades from the first semester of the undergraduate program to the present. Those who are expected to graduate or complete must also submit a final transcript during the enrollment procedures.
- In addition, digital copies of certificates are acceptable at the time of application, but the original certificates must be submitted at the time of admission procedures after acceptance.

- Please submit Japanese or English certificates. If it is impossible to have Japanese or English certificates issued, applicants must translate the documents by themselves, have them notarized to certify that the translation is accurate, and submit the documents that are notarized.
- If applicants have completed a graduated program after transferring to a different program, please submit transcripts from both programs.
- If any credits are acquired from studying abroad, an original copy of the academic transcript obtained from the university the applicant has studied abroad is also required.

F: Documentation of Graduation or Completion

< Non-Chinese university/college graduates >

- Please upload the certificate of (expected) graduation or completion on TAO.
- In addition, digital copies of certificates are acceptable at the time of application, but the original certificates must be submitted at the time of admission procedures after acceptance.
- Please submit Japanese or English certificates. If it is impossible to have Japanese or English certificates issued, applicants must translate the documents by themselves, have them notarized to certify that the translation is accurate, and submit the documents that are notarized.
- Those who are expected to graduate must submit a certificate of expected graduation / completion or certificate of enrollment, and they must also have to submit a certificate of graduation / completion upon proceeding entrance procedure.
- If applicants have completed a graduate program after graduating from university, please submit the certificate from both undergraduate and graduate schools.

< Chinese university/college graduates >

- Please arrange for a certificate to be issued as proof of graduation or completion.
The following documents must be arranged for an official English version document to be sent directly to our office (gsps-verification@list.waseda.jp) from CSSD (CHESICC) via email.
 - Graduates: "Online Verification Report of Higher Education Qualification Certificate" and "Online Verification Report of Higher Education Degree Certificate"
 - Expected Graduates: "Online Verification Report of Student Record"
 - ✧ Visit CSSD (CHESICC) website (<https://www.chsi.com.cn/en/pvr/>) for more information.
 - ✧ Online Verification Report must reach our office before the deadline of the application period.
 - ✧ Only the certificates sent directly from CSSD (CHESICC) will be considered valid.
- If applicants have completed a graduate program after graduating from university, please submit the certificate from both undergraduate and graduate schools.
- Those who are expected graduates must submit the "Online Verification Report of Higher Education Qualification Certificate" and the "Online Verification Report of Higher Education Degree Certificate" upon proceeding entrance procedure.

G: English proficiency

- Please select your first language.
- Please follow the instructions on the TAO screen to enter the necessary information.

[Score card of TOEFL / TOEIC / IELTS]

- Please upload an official score card from one of the following language examinations.
 - TOEFL: only TOEFL-iBT is acceptable. TOEFL-PBT and TOEFL-iBT Home Edition are not acceptable. "MyBest Scores" is not acceptable.
 - TOEIC: only TOEIC L&R is acceptable. TOEIC(IP) is not acceptable.
 - IELTS: only IELTS Academic Module is acceptable. IELTS Online is not acceptable.
IELTS One Skill Retake is not acceptable.

- Applicants who are nationals of countries where English is an official language or have received a degree from an English-based degree program at an institute of higher education (university or higher) are not required to submit a test score card. In addition, any applicants who complete English-based program outside English-speaking countries, must submit a certificate which proves that they complete English-based program.
- TOEFL/TOEIC/IELTS must have been taken no more than 2 years before the application deadline.

III. Examinations

1. Examinee Slip

- After the application is received, examinee slips will be posted on TAO for those applicants whose applications have been accepted. Please check your examinee number by logging in TAO.

1) From the "Application List", select the application you have completed: " Doctoral Program of Political Science Program for September 2025 Entry 【General Admission】 ".

2) Click on the "Show examinee slip" button to check your examinee number.

- If the examinee slip is not shown on TAO a week before the announcement day of the first examination result, please contact the Graduate School of Political Science Office immediately. (Email: gspas-admission@list.waseda.jp)
- The examinee slip will be required to get a student ID card after enrollment. Please make sure to be converted to electronic data and print out for keeping it in a safe place.

2. About the First Screening

- Screening is conducted based on the comprehensive evaluation of all submitted documents.

3. About the Second Screening

- We conduct an oral examination for those who pass the First Screening through a Web conference system.
- Oral Examination is about for 40 minutes.
- Applicants will be allowed to refer to their research plan, academic thesis and its outline submitted during the screening.
- The second screening (oral examination) will be conducted on either of the dates designated by the Graduate School of Political Science.

Overseas Applicants	Domestic Applicants
One of the following dates in 2025 designated by GSPS: April 19 – April 27	One of the following dates in 2024 designated by GSPS: July 1 – July 6

- Information regarding the specific time of the oral examination will be announced by email.

Overseas Applicants	Domestic Applicants
April 11, 2025 (3:00 p.m.)	June 20, 2025 (3:00 p.m.)

1) Oral Examinations Conducted by Web Conference System

(1) Required Devices/Environment

- Oral examinations conducted by a Web conference system requires access to the internet and devices such as a computer and a microphone. Please confirm that you have everything required by reading the “Guideline for Oral Examination through Web Conference System” before applying.

(2) Connection Test

- We will conduct a Web conference system connection test on one of the days scheduled below before the real exam. Please be aware that the connection test is mandatory and you are not allowed to take the real exam without the connection test.

Schedule for connection test
Overseas Applicants	April 14– April 18, 2025
Domestic Applicants	June 23 – June 27, 2025

- If we conclude that we cannot have the oral exam due to issues caused by the connection and devices’ settings or any other unexpected incidents either on the day for connection test or the oral exam, we might consider that applicants don’t show up. Please understand this fully when selecting this method.

(3) Important Notes Regarding the Oral Examination

- The time of the oral examination will be announced by email.
<https://www.waseda.jp/fpsc/gspss/tag/admissions/>
- During the screening, applicants are prohibited from referring to any materials other than the materials permitted. This includes not only printed materials, but also materials either online or stored on your device. Reference to materials other than the materials permitted will be considered as a dishonest act.
- To prevent cheating during the examination, Waseda University will make audio/ video recording of the interview. Making audio/ video recording and taking photographs by applicants are strictly prohibited.
- Please prepare your printed examinee slip and a document for identification, for identity verification purposes..
- Please access the oral examination from the same environment as the connection test. Also use the same device. The Graduate School of Political Science will not be held responsible for any issues on the day of the exam due to the use of a different device or access from a different environment.
- The environment you attend the examination must be quiet with no persons nearby. A noisy environment will be considered as inadequate to continue the examination, and you may be considered as “absent”. If any other persons are nearby, it will be considered as a dishonest act.

(4) Precautions (e.g., equipment and environment required of applicants)

a. Internet connection

Please ensure a stable internet connection. A wired LAN system with cables is recommended to ensure a stable connection.

b. Audio and video equipment

Please prepare a web camera, microphone, earphones, speakers, etc. You may use the equipment built into your personal computer or other equipment. We recommend the use of a computer, but smartphones and tablets are also acceptable. Please participate in the Zoom test meeting (<http://zoom.us/test>) in advance to confirm the audio and video functioning/quality.

c. Location and interview time

Please secure a room with the above-mentioned equipment where you can maintain a quiet environment with no third parties around you. The start time of the interview will be designated by the University. Please note that we cannot accommodate individual requests. The interview will last approximately 40 minutes. We will allow up to 10 minutes of late arrival, but we will not extend the interview time for the delay. Applicants will be considered absent when arriving 10 minutes after the scheduled interview time.

d. Troubleshooting and precautions on the day

If it is deemed difficult to conduct the interview owing to unforeseen circumstances such as Internet disconnection, the University will contact you by phone or e-mail at the contact address indicated on the application form. Please follow our instructions under these circumstances. If the applicant does not respond to our contact or does not follow our instructions, they may be deemed to have abandoned the examination. If the applicant leaves their seat during the interview, they may be deemed to have abandoned the examination. In these cases, the application fee will not be refunded.

Failure to observe the following precautions may be considered cheating:

Applicants will be allowed to refer to their research plan, academic thesis and its outline submitted during the screening. Other than that, the only items that can be placed around you are the examination slip, writing apparatus, notepad, plain handkerchief, and tissue paper out of a box or a bag.

e. Cautions regarding Zoom

- Please make sure that the Zoom video and audio are always “on” and that your entire face is always visible on screen.
- Please do not use any communication devices other than those used for the interview. Do not search for information or use any applications or tools other than Zoom on the device being used for the interview.
- Do not use the virtual background function of Zoom.
- To ensure that there are no third parties around you, you may be asked to move the camera to view the entire room before, during, and after the interview. In such cases, please follow the instructions.
- Please remove your mask during the interview.
- Please refer to the following website for instructions on how to operate Zoom.

Zoom Support:

<https://support.zoom.com/hc/en>

4. Announcement of results

- The results of the examinations will be shown on the TAO.
 - No individual inquiries concerning results can be accepted.
- 1) From the "Application List", select the application you have completed: "Doctoral Program of Political Science Program for September 2025 Entry 【General Admission】".

- 2) Click on the "Show my screening status" button to confirm your result.

6. Examination Regulations

Waseda University has established the following precautions to ensure that the entrance examination is conducted in a strict manner, and that all applicants may take the examination fairly and impartially. Please read these precautions carefully before taking the entrance examination and approach the examination with the appropriate attitude of seriousness.

1. Any falsification, fabrication, plagiarism, modification, etc., of documents, materials, or information submitted to the University at the time of application may be considered misconduct.

2. The following acts constitute misconduct:

- (1) Cheating (e.g., concealing or using cheat sheets, reference books, etc., during the examination, looking at other examinees' answer sheets, etc., seeking answers from other examinees, taking notes on one's body, objects, desk, etc. and referring to them.)
- (2) Any action that benefits another examinee or other examinees, such as communicating the answers to a question, etc., during the examination.
- (3) Holding or using mobile phones, etc., during the examination.
- (4) Enabling any sounds (incoming calls, alarms, vibrating sounds, etc.) on mobile phones, etc., and watches during the examination.
- (5) Behavior that disturbs other examinees in the examination room.
- (6) Failure to follow the instructions of an examination supervisor, etc., at the examination site.
- (7) Having any person other than the applicant herself/himself impersonate the applicant and take the examination.
- (8) Any and all other acts that may impair the fairness of the examination.

3. If misconduct is suspected, the University may respond as follows. Failure to comply with these actions may be considered an admission of wrongdoing.

- An examination supervisor, etc., may give examinees a warning or inquire about the circumstances.
- The applicant may be requested to take the examination in a different seat or room.
- The University may inquire about the authenticity, etc., of documents, materials, theses, and information, etc. submitted to the University (hereafter "Submitted Documents") by providing them to the issuers, providers, theses review entities, etc. By submitting or providing the Submitted Documents to the University, the applicant agrees to the University's right to make such inquiries.

4. The following actions may be taken in the case of confirmed misconduct.

- The applicant will not be permitted to take any entrance examination of the University in the relevant academic year (screening fees will not be refunded).
- The results of all entrance examinations of the University for the relevant academic year shall be null and void.
If, after enrollment, a student is found to have committed misconduct, he/she may be subject to a range of disciplinary actions up to and including expulsion from the University, in accordance with the University's rules and regulations.
- In case of misconduct that Waseda University find it vicious and serious, the University may report to the police or contact the dishonest individual's guardians etc.

5. Accidents/incidents owing to force majeure.

In the event of a natural disaster— such as typhoons, floods, earthquakes, tsunamis, etc.—fires, power outages, or other force majeure accidents or transportation disruptions, measures including delaying the start and end of the exam or postponing the exam, etc. may be taken. However, in such an event, the University will not be liable for any inconvenience, expense, or other personal damage incurred by examinees as a result of such measures.

6. Infection's diseases

Applicants who, in accordance with School Health and Safety Act, have been forbidden from attending classes due to as of yet untreated cases of infectious diseases (such as COVID-19, influenza, measles, rubella, etc.), and who may consequently prove a threat to other applicants and proctors of the examination, are asked not to attend the examination. Note that, for those unable to attend the examination for this (or any other) reason, there will be no make-up examination, and your screening fee will not be returned to you unless we announce special treatment.

IV. Entrance Procedures

Entrance Procedures require successful applicants to complete the following three steps within the designated period: (1) registering the the information for the entrance procedure <UCARO>, (2) paying the admission fees, academic fees and other fees, (3) and submitting the documents required for enrollment. In case the applicants failed to complete the entrance procedures within the designated period, the admission will be canceled regardless of any reason.

Details of the entrance procedure and the essential documents are described on the manual for “the entrance procedures” which is sent to successful applicants.

1. Schedule of Entrance Procedures

- The entrance procedure period is scheduled as follows:

Overseas Applicants	Domestic Applicants
Late May – Early June, 2025	Late July – Early August, 2025

[Notes]

- If you are currently enrolled in, or have graduated from, completed, or withdrawn from an undergraduate, graduate, or specialized program of Waseda University, you are not required to pay the entrance fee (registration fee). For more information, please refer to the handbook on enrollment procedures sent to successful applicants.
- Graduates of the Graduate School of Political Science, Graduate School of Economics or School of Political Science and Economics will be exempt from paying the society enrollment fee.
- Fees on the above table are subject to change.
- As a general rule, we do not return submitted documents or refund registration (admission) fee, tuition and other fees (for the first semester). However, if you do not enter Waseda University owing to unavoidable circumstances or fail to meet the eligibility criteria before enrollment, we may refund tuition and other fees (for the first semester) only. For more information on the procedure for receiving such a refund, refer to the handbook on enrollment procedures sent to successful applicants.

3. Certificate of Eligibility

- International students who are admitted to Waseda University are able to obtain “Student” visa status. In order to apply for visa status to enter Japan, you will first need to obtain a Certificate of Eligibility from the Immigration Bureau of the Ministry of Justice of Japan, located in Japan. Only if you are a foreign student applying from outside Japan and have completed the procedures for enrollment Waseda University will act on your behalf to apply by proxy to the Immigration Bureau for your Certificate of Eligibility (COE). After the application by proxy is granted, the Immigration Bureau will deliver your COE to Waseda University, which then will send it with an acceptance letter issued by GSPS to you (the applicant) by mail. Upon receiving the COE and the acceptance letter, you must take it together with your passport to the Japanese embassy or consulate to apply for a College Student visa. Because it takes two to three months before a COE is issued, upon completing the enrollment procedures, you must send the required documents to the Waseda University Graduate School of Political Science at the time of the Entrance Procedures. Please refer to the “the entrance procedures” sent to all accepted applicants for the necessary documents materials.
