

Faculty of Political Science and Economics, Waseda University
Faculty Recruitment Information
(Any Field in Economics, Tenure-Track)

The Faculty of Political Science and Economics at Waseda University invites applications for two tenure-track faculty positions (at the rank of associate professor) in economics, beginning in September 2019 or April 2020. We seek promising junior researchers with the potential to make significant contributions to their field.

Applicants must have completed a PhD by the time of appointment. They must be able to teach microeconomics, macroeconomics, or econometrics in English. Proficiency in Japanese is not required. The appointment is for an initial period of three years, with a possible extension of two years after an interim review that takes place during the second or third year. Tenure may be granted at any time during the years on the tenure-track if deemed appropriate in the tenure review.

Waseda University, founded in 1882, is a leading private research university located in central Tokyo. The Faculty of Political Science and Economics has offered English-based degree programs both at the undergraduate and graduate levels since 2010.

Review of applications begins on September 26, 2018. The final application deadline is November 21, 2018, 13:00 (JST).

Application Procedure

All applications must be submitted electronically at https://www.wasedapse.jp/en/fpse1/eng_input.php

At least two reference letters must be submitted via the American Economic Association's JOE website by the final application deadline:
