

Students who Forgot their Student ID or are Waiting for a Re-issued Student ID

These students will need to obtain an Examination Entry Permission Card from the Office for the School of Political Science and Economics prior to taking the examination.

* For students who have applied to have their student ID reissued, the Student ID Issuance Request (student's copy) will be used in place of their actual ID and will need to be presented at the examination site.

School of Political Science and Economics