

WASEDA UNIVERSITY

It's time to explore the world!

Catholic University of Lille

the European School of Political and Social Sciences

The Catholic University of Lille, founded in 1875, is composed of additional schools and institutes, including ESPOL (political science), ISEA (accounting), the Department of Ethics and Philosophy, and the IU2S (healthcare administration).

ESPOL, the European School of Political and Social Sciences, offers an interdisciplinary education oriented towards political careers and emphasizes on human values and on ethics of responsibilities - indispensable qualities for making one's way in today's world.

About 30% of ESPOL's students each year are foreign students, participating in an exchange programme or within the Programme in European Politics. And they are waiting for your participation!
