August 2023

To Parents and Guardians of current students,

“Parents’ Day” at the School of Political Science and Economics

The School of Political Science and Economics at Waseda University will hold “Parents’ Day” for parents and guardians of first-year students (Japanese-based Degree Program) and second-year students (English-based Degree Program) to promote a deeper understanding of the educational policies of our School, as follows. We look forward to your participation.

[Parents’ Day 2023]

Method:

Video streaming via YouTube (on-demand contents)

Date and time:

October 18, 2023 (Wed.) 17:00 - November 6, 2023 (Mon.) 09:00 (JST)

The video will not be broadcast live and can be viewed anytime during the period above.

Contents:

Explanation of our school (by the Dean)

Introduction to current students’ activities, including study abroad and job hunting (by the Associate Dean etc.)

The URL for viewing will be sent by e-mail to parents and guardians who have applied through the application form. We will also send a collection of Q&A that summarizes the questions we receive every year as reference.

Application for viewing:

Please apply via the following URL.

School of Political Science and Economics website: <https://www.waseda.jp/fpse/pse/en/>

Please click on the “Application URL” in the “Announcement of <Parents’ Day> for parents and guardians of JDP 1st-year and EDP 2nd-year students in the School of Political Science and Economics” in the “News” section of the top page of the faculty website.

You can also apply via the QR code on the right.

Application deadline: Wednesday, October 16, 2023, 09:00 (JST)

[Individual Consultations]

We will hold individual consultations on Saturday, November 11 for those with questions after watching the YouTube video and reading Q&A.

You can choose to have your consultation either online (using the Zoom video conferencing system) or in person (at building #3, Waseda Campus).

Please note that there is a limit of the number of applications we can accept, and if the number reaches the limit, we may not be able to hold a meeting at your preferred time chosen on the application form.

Please apply for an individual consultation from the following URL.
