

The Programme for the Conference, 'Population, Poverty and Welfare in the History of Economic Thought: an international comparison (provisional)

Waseda University, Tokyo, Japan

At the meeting room of the Institute of Current Politics and Economy
(2nd floor, Building no.1)

19 March 2014

9:55 Opening Katsuyoshi Watarai(Waseda University, Japan))

10:00 John Barton on Population, Poverty, and Measures. By Jou Ishii (Kantou Gakuin University, Japan)

Chair: Satoshi Niimura (Okayama University, Japan)

Comment: Katsuyoshi Watarai

11:00 Beveridge and his Pursuit of an Ideal Economics: How was the Post-War Vision Constructed? By Atsushi Komine(Ryukoku University, Japan)

Chair: Katsuyoshi Watarai

Comment Satoshi Niimura (Okayama University, Japan)

12:00 Lunch Time

14:00 Kinjiro Ninomiya's Economic Thought and Recovery from Poverty of Some Villages Towards the End of Edo Period. By Katsuyoshi Watarai

Chair: Atsushi Komine

Comment: Cosimo Perrotta (Salento University, Italy)

15:00-15:30 Coffee Break

15:30 Is Adam Smith an Egalitarian? By Satoshi Niimura

Chair: Atsushi Komine

Comment: Jou Ishii

16:30 Genovesi's Economics: Evolution and Development By Cosimo Perrotta (Salento University, Italy)

Chair: Satoshi Niimura

Comment: Katsuyoshi Watarai

1730 Concluding Katsuyoshi Watarai

18:00-20:00 Dinner

22 March 2014

16:30-18:00 Fear of Consumption in the History of Economic Thought in Europe, by Cosimo Perrotta