

This system is only available to those who have completed the registration in the Residential Basic Book as of April 27th, 2020.

While paying attention to the prevention of the spread of infection in the emergency economic measures for COVID-19 infectious diseases, the Ministry of Internal Affairs and Communications has decided to implement a Special Fixed-Benefit Project (temp name) in order to promptly and accurately support households.

[Purpose of System]

The benefit will be provided by the Japanese Government as a financial support to households that are affected by the COVID-19. Please follow the outlines below.

[Terms of Benefit]

Foreign residents who are registered in the Residential Basic Book as of April 27th, 2020 are also eligible.

[How to Apply]

The application will be mailed from the city you currently live in. Please apply by mail or online (only available to My Number Card holders).

The benefit will be transferred directly to your bank account of the applicant.

[When to Apply]

The registration date and payment date will be decided by the city, where you currently live in, and the deadline for the application will be in three months from the registration starts of the mailing application.

Please beware of wire-transfer scams aimed at the benefit.
