

Waseda University Emergency Scholarship

<for International Students>

(Except for sudden and drastic changes in their family's financial situation due to COVID-19)

“Waseda University Emergency Scholarship” is a scholarship to support students who have difficulty in continuing their studies due to a sudden and drastic change in their family's financial situation, such as their financial supporter's loss of job, bankruptcy, sickness, death, natural disaster, or other emergency reasons.

* This Scholarship will not support sudden and drastic changes in their family's financial situation due to COVID-19. Regarding the tuition support for sudden and drastic changes in their family's financial situation due to COVID-19, we will separately make notice on our website etc.

Notice: For more details, please refer to the Application Guidelines which can be downloaded from our website (<https://www.waseda.jp/inst/scholarship/en/>)

1. Eligibility: Students who meet all the following requirements;

- (1) At the time of application, the reason of sudden changes in their family's financial situation has happened within the past ONE year (August 2019- July 2020)*1.
