Academic Year 2021

Application Guidelines: Scholarship for Young Doctoral Students For September Enrollees (newly admitted students and currently enrolled students) and For April Enrollees (who took a leave of absence in spring semester of 2021)

[NOTE] By the effects of COVID-19, we partially change the way of application document preparation and submission for this Academic Year 2021.

Overview of the scholarship

This scholarship was established in 2009 to help students currently enrolled in a doctoral program to become outstanding young scholars with superior research capabilities and extensive knowledge of their fields. As shown in the table below, each graduate school will select the recipients from the students who fulfill all the requirements indicated in the following section (2. Eligibility) and submit the application documents.

Graduate school	Scholarship grant (annual)	Number of recipients	Scholarship is offered to
Graduate School of Fundamental Science and Engineering, Graduate School of Creative Science and Engineering, Graduate School of Advanced Science and Engineering,	500,000yen	262	All the students who meet the qualifications

[Note] *The numbers of recipients shown in the table are the intended total annual numbers, including both spring and fall recruitments.

1. How and when to apply

Application period: No later than November 19, 2021 (Friday)

[Deadline to be strictly adhered to]

How to apply: Submit all the required application documents listed in 3 below through application form.

*Please note that no applications will be accepted after the deadline.

*Please note that submission by other application methods will not be accepted other than by the above Application Form.

*We will distribute the application guidelines and start to accept applications from late May 2022 for Spring enrollees enrolled in or enrolling after academic year 2009 (with the exception of those re-enrolling and transfer students).

*The amount of this scholarship applies to one academic year (September 2021-August 2022). If you would like this scholarship to continue in the next academic year as well, you must meet the application qualifications for the next academic year and apply again. The scholarship does not continue automatically into the next academic year.

2. Eligibility

Students who meet ALL the following four requirements, (1) through (4)

*This year, you can apply for both "Scholarship for Young Doctoral Students" and the W-SPRING (this may change in the next year).

- (1) 1st - 3rd year doctoral students and 1st-5th year doctoral students enrolled in a consistent five-year doctoral program (actual course year: based on the length of enrollment excluding leaves of absence and study abroad) who are September enrollees enrolled in or enrolling after academic year 2009 (with the exception of those re-enrolling and transfer students), or those who are April enrollees enrolled in or enrolling after academic year 2009 and had taken a leave of absence in the Spring semester of 2021

However, students who have received the grants three times (5-year doctoral program: five times) are not eligible to apply.

*April enrollees who took a leave of absence for the Spring semester of 2021 and returned to school for the fall semester of 2021 are eligible to receive this scholarship only for the fall semester (for half year). They must follow the application guidelines of the spring semester of 2022 in order to apply for this scholarship for the spring semester of 2022 to the fall semester of 2022.

- (2) Students under 30 years of age as of April 1, 2021 (born on April 2, 1991 or later)
- (3) Students who have received recommendations from two academic staff (one from your chief research project advisor and another from a full-time faculty member, except faculty members who are NOT on tenure).

Names of your recommenders must be filled in on the “Scholarship Applicant Recommendation Form & Confirmation Form for Information on Application”.

(Recommenders’ names may be either handwritten or typed. Their seals are not required. However, please be sure to get their approval beforehand.).

- (4) Students in any of the following categories cannot apply:

- ① Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology (MEXT) government sponsored international students
- ② Waseda University research associate
- ③ Part-time lecturer at Waseda University Senior High School, Waseda University Honjo Senior High School, Waseda University Art and Architecture School of Waseda University
- ④ Recipients of a Japan Society for the Promotion of Science (JSPS) Research Fellowship for Young Scientists
- ⑤ Recipients of other full tuition waivers (school fee waived due to disasters, etc. or other reasons)
- ⑥ Students receiving full Waseda University tuition (or a full reduction) from a government, corporation or scholarship foundation

*There are cases where those paying a portion of their own tuition (including help from parents) are eligible to apply. Please contact the Scholarships and Financial Assistance Section for more information.

- ⑦ Students on a leave of absence

*Those who took a leave of absence for the spring semester of this year and returned to school in this fall semester are eligible to apply. They need to apply at this time.

*For students who take a leave of absence for the fall semester of this year and return to school in the spring semester of next year, they will need to follow the application guidelines of the spring semester of next year to apply (guidelines will be informed late May).

- [Note] - If one or more of the conditions in (4)① through ⑦ becomes applicable to you during September 21st 2021 to September 20th 2022, it will be necessary to return the full amount (or a portion of the amount) of the scholarship.
- Even if you fulfill the “2.Eligibility” at the time of application, it will be necessary to return the full amount (or a portion of the amount) of the scholarship when you do not meet the requirements from September 21st 2021 to September 20th 2022

Please contact the Scholarships and Financial Assistance Section if you should fall under the situation as stated above.

3. Required Application Documents

Prepare all the documents in (1) and (2) below and submit the application through the application form during the specified application period. All application documents, including the Form 2, may be either handwritten or typed and do not require a seal.
