The FSE "English-based Undergraduate Program AO Admission for September 2026 Entry"
The notice for Grace Period for Applicants who take Taiwan GSAT (学測) or Singapore-Cambridge GCE A-Level

Since the results of the GSAT or Singapore-Cambridge GCE A-Level examinations will be released after the application period, the Faculty of Science and Engineering will extend the application period for applicants who are expected to graduate, or have already graduated, from high school at the time of application and who plan to submit the GSAT or Singapore-Cambridge GCE A-Level scores as part of their screening materials. Please carefully read the following instructions and submit all required documents by the designated deadlines.

[STEP1]
Please submit your application documents EXCEPT for the results of GSAT or Singapore-Cambridge GCE A-Level during the Regular Application period. If your application documents do not arrive within the application period, your application will be considered invalid.

* Applicants must complete the online application by clicking "Submit" button. Follow the instruction on "TAO"

1. Login to "TAO".
2. In the "Standardized Test Score" section, select:
   ・"I can submit a standardized test result as described in the List of Application Documents by Education System."
   ・"I can submit only one or two subjects out of the required three subjects in each standardized test listed in the List of Application Documents by Education System."
3. Please check one of the following options:
   ・"Taiwan GSAT"
   ・"Singapore-Cambridge GCE A-Level"
4. "Taiwan GSAT"：From the "Test Taken Year" pull-down menu, select "2026," the year you will take the test. Even if you took the test in 2025, please select 2026 if your test results will be released in 2026.
   "Singapore-Cambridge GCE A-Level"：From the "Test Taken Year" pull-down menu, select "2025," the year you will take the test.
5. Check "I will submit the score report by March 6, 2026 by the designate form (qualtrics)."
