Graduate school of Information, Production and Systems, WASEDA UNIVERSITY

There might be changes to the screening conditions. In such cases, we will provide notifications on our website. Please check our website regularly for updates. Additionally, if any changes occur after the application period, we may notify applicants via email. Please also check the email on a regular basis.

- Dispatched non-degree students

A student who is dispatched by national or local governments, foreign governments, educational institutions, research institutes, or private organizations to register for subjects offered by the Graduate School of Information, Production and Systems, Waseda University (hereinafter, IPS).

- Ordinary non-degree students

A student other than the above who wishes to register for subjects offered by IPS.

1. Number of students to be admitted

A few

2. Subject, Credit

Non-degree students may take lecture courses (fundamental and specialized subjects) as long as this does not interfere with the studies of regular students.

The maximum number of credits they may take is 14 per semester and 28 per academic year.

Master's non-degree students are not permitted to register for research supervision.

Doctoral non-degree students can receive research guidance only.

For commissioned non-degree students, please inquire separately.

Please refer to the following Web page for the information of IPS subjects.

<https://www.waseda.jp/fsci/gips/other-en/2024/07/23/26339/>

- * In order to obtain “Student” residence status, Master's non-degree students must take at least 10 hours of courses (6 courses/12 credits) per week. (If Doctoral non-degree students receive research guidance, they can obtain “Student” residence status without taking any other courses).

- * If Master's non-degree students become Master's degree students, up to 14 credits (excluding research guidance) earned in the Master's non-degree program can be converted to the credits of Master's Degree program.

3. Qualifications for application

【Master's Non-degree Program】

Applicants must fulfill one of the following requirements:

- Graduated or are scheduled to graduate from a university in Japan by the time the applicants wish to enroll.
- Received or are scheduled to receive a bachelor's degree from the National Institution for Academic Degrees and Quality Enhancement of Higher Education by the time applicants wish to enroll.
- Completed or are scheduled to complete 16 years of formal education outside Japan by the time applicants wish to enroll.
- Received or are expected to receive a degree equivalent to a bachelor's degree from a university or other school outside of Japan by completing a course of study lasting three years or more by the time the applicants wish to enroll.
- Designated by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science, and Technology by the time applicants wish to enroll.
- Enrolled at a university for three years or more (or have completed or are scheduled to complete 15 years of formal education overseas by the time applicants wish to enroll) and have been recognized by the Graduate School of Information, Production and Systems as having earned a specified number of credits with an excellent academic record.
- Recognized individually by the Graduate School of Information, Production and Systems as having academic credentials equivalent or superior to those of university graduates and will reach 22 years of age by the time applicants wish to enroll.

- * “University” mentioned in Requirements a, and f, refers to a university that is approved by the Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology of Japan.

- * “Those who have completed 16 years of formal school education in a foreign country” implies “those who have completed the ‘16th year’ of formal school education outside of Japan.” It is not based on whether or not you have received 16 years of education, but on whether or not you have completed the “16th year” of education.

- * Applicants who have graduated from university in countries where 16 years of education is not required before university graduation, or those who may meet category f. or g. should contact the admissions office before the application period starts. They should then submit their application (Form 1) along with documentation of their scholastic ability or research achievement (graduation certificate, grade transcript, personal history, list of publications and research summary, patent, etc.).

- * “Those who have completed 16 years of formal school education in a foreign country” implies “those who have completed the ‘16th year’ of formal school education outside of Japan.” It is not based on whether or not you have received 16 years of education, but on whether or not you have completed the “16th year” of education. “Those who have completed 16 years of formal school education in a foreign country” implies “those who have completed the ‘16th year’ of formal school education outside of Japan.” It is not based on whether or not you have received 16 years of education, but on whether or not you have completed the “16th year” of education. Graduates from three-year specialized college (zhuanke) programs in China do not meet Requirement f. However, those who have graduated from a 4-year (benke) program after graduating from a 3-year and completed 16 years of formal education will be considered as fulfilling Requirement c.
- * Students with outstanding grades may apply to enter the graduate school upon completion of the third year of university. They should contact the admissions office before the application period starts. In this case, who under 22 years of age are also eligible.

【Doctoral Non-degree Program】

Applicants must fulfill one of the following requirements:

- a. Holders of a Master's Degree, Professional Master's Degree, or Professional Doctoral Degree in Law, or those expected to obtain such a degree by the time applicants wish to enroll.
 - b. Holders of a master's degree, professional master's degree, or an equivalent from an institution overseas or those expected to obtain such degree by the time the applicants wish to enroll.
 - c. Designated by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science, and Technology by the time applicants wish to enroll.
 - d. Completed postgraduate programs and obtained a degree equivalent to a master's degree from United Nations University or those who are expected to obtain such degree by the time the applicants wish to enroll.
 - e. Recognized individually by the Graduate School of Information, Production, and Systems as possessing academic ability equivalent to that of holders of a master's degree, professional master's degree, or professional doctoral degree in law through an individual entrance requirement screening process and expected to reach the age of 24 by the time the applicants wish to enroll. Those who have completed the first two years of a continuous five-year doctoral course are included.
- * “Master's degree” mentioned in requirement a, refers to a master's degree which was obtained in Japan or is expected to be obtained in Japan.
 - * Applicants who may meet category e. should contact the admissions office before the application period starts, and then submit their application (Form 1) along with documentation of their scholastic ability or research achievement (graduation certificate, grade transcript, personal history, list of publications and research summary, patent, etc.).

Faculty members of Waseda University, including Waseda University Junior/Senior High School, Waseda University Honjo Senior High School, and Art and Architecture School, are not allowed to enroll as students at the University. However, there are a few exceptions according to the University regulations. If you have any questions, please contact the relevant administration office.

4. Limit of enrollment term

For one semester (half a year) or two semesters (one year)

- Enrollment period for those taking courses only in the spring semester: April 1 – September 15
- Enrollment period for those taking courses only in the fall semester: September 21 – March 15 of the following year

[Note for International Students]

* Owing to visa restrictions, international students are allowed to study at Waseda University as non-degree students only for a period of one year. In case you wish to be a non-degree student for one year, you must apply and pass the examination every semester. If you are enrolled as a non-degree student(research student) at another university, it is very difficult to obtain permission from the Immigration Bureau to change or renew your status of residence even if you wish to become a non-degree student at Waseda University in the following academic year. Please check with the Immigration Bureau for more details. Dishonest Acts

Waseda University has established the following precautions to ensure that the entrance examination is conducted in a strict manner, and that all applicants may take the examination fairly and impartially. Please read these precautions carefully before taking the entrance examination and approach the examination with the appropriate attitude of seriousness.

1. Any falsification, fabrication, plagiarism, modification, etc., of documents, materials, or information submitted to the University at the time of application may be considered misconduct.
2. If misconduct is suspected, the University may respond as follows. Failure to comply with these actions may be considered an admission of wrongdoing.
 - The University may inquire about the authenticity, etc., of documents, materials, theses, and information, etc. submitted to the University (hereafter, "Submitted Documents") by providing them to the issuers, providers, theses review entities, etc. By submitting or providing the Submitted Documents to the University, the applicant agrees to the University's right to make such inquiries.
3. The following actions may be taken in the case of confirmed misconduct.
 - The applicant will not be permitted to take any entrance examination of the University in the relevant academic year (screening fees will not be refunded).
 - The results of all entrance examinations of the University for the relevant academic year shall be null and void.

If, after enrollment, a student is found to have committed misconduct, he/she may be subject to revocation of admission, in accordance with the University's rules and regulations.

In cases of misconduct that Waseda University find it vicious and serious, the University may report to the police or contact the dishonest individual's guardians and/or home university.

Your reason for application, research plan, etc. are a chance to explain yourself to the school and should be completed by yourself. Using generative AI to create these documents and presenting them as your own work may be considered as cheating and could affect the evaluation of your application.

Others

1. Handling of Personal Information

Waseda University will use the personal information (address, name, date of birth, etc.) collected at the time of application to discharge duties relating to entrance examinations, announcement of successful applicants, enrollment procedures, and other related work. In doing so, the University will take necessary and appropriate measures to prevent the leakage, outflow, or unauthorized use of such information. The University may outsource all or part of the above-stated items. In such cases, the University will oblige, by contract or other means, the subcontracted entity or entities to perform necessary and appropriate management of the information. The University may inquire about the authenticity, etc., of documents, materials, theses, and information, etc., submitted to the University (hereafter "Submitted Documents") by providing them to the issuers, providers, theses review entities, etc. By submitting or providing the Submitted Documents to the University, the applicant agrees to the University's right to make such inquiries. Personal information that has been statistically processed, keeping individual identities confidential, will be used as material for surveys and research for the University's admission selection processes.

2. Collecting Information Related to Gender

For the sake of administering entrance exams in an efficient manner and carrying out enrollment procedures, Waseda University collects information regarding your sex on legal documents such as family register or passport. The information is collected only for reasonably justifiable purposes, and these cases are limited to a minimum. If your sex is marked as neither male nor female on the legal documents, please contact at IPS Admissions Office prior to application. The information does not affect the screening result.

3. Applicant with disability and chronic illness

If you expect to require special care after entering the University owing to a disability or serious medical condition, etc., please contact IPS Admissions Office at Waseda University before submitting your application.

4. Disclaimer

➤ Accidents/incidents owing to force majeure.

In the event of a natural disaster— such as typhoons, floods, earthquakes, tsunamis, etc.—fires, power outages, or other force majeure accidents or transportation disruptions, measures including delaying the start and end of the exam or postponing the exam, etc. may be taken. However, in such an event, the University will not be liable for any inconvenience, expense, or other personal damage incurred by examinees as a result of such measures.

5. Security Export Controls

At Waseda University, we have established security export control regulations and operational guidelines in accordance with the "Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Act". We conduct evaluations when providing technology or admitting researchers and students from abroad to ensure that the educational and research activities for foreign students do not compromise international security and peace. Please be aware that if the evaluation determines that you fall under the regulated conditions, your desired educational and research activities may be subject to restrictions.
