

Current State of Affairs in Peace Studies:

50th Anniversary of Peace Studies at the University of Bradford

13:00-13:10 Opening Remarks

Shukuko KOYAMA (Waseda University)

13:10-13:50 Keynote Speech

Christoph BLUTH (University of Bradford)

13:50-15:05 Presentations by Panelists

“Careers in Peace Studies: Practice and Research”

In this difficult times, why do we need to study peace studies? Five Japanese alumni – both practitioners and researchers – will share their views on this point, while also touching upon how their studies/experiences in Bradford was useful for their later career.

15:15-16:00 Panel Discussion and Q&A

Chair: Christoph
BLUTH
(University of Bradford)

Shukuko
KOYAMA
(Waseda University)

Kenta AOKI
(Middle East
Institute of Japan)

Juichiro
TANABE
(Waseda University)

Miho FUKUI
(Peace Winds
Japan)

Yoshiaki
FURUZAWA
(Hiroshima City University)

Date: March 23, 2024 (Sat), 13:00-16:00

Venue: Meeting Room 2 (第二会議室), International Conference Center (国際会議場), Waseda University

Language: English

To Register: <https://forms.gle/y3335B955LPvstjk9>

❑ Note: Space is limited for 100 persons on “first-come, first-serve” basis.

Organizer: Department of Peace Studies and International Development, University of Bradford

Co-organizers: Global Asia Research Center - Waseda University; Graduate School of International Studies - Hiroshima City University

