Notes:

- 1) Course registration are all carried out individually online through MyWaseda.
- 2) If you are unable to register for your courses online due to unstable internet access or for other reasons, please consult with the school office beforehand. Registrations received outside the designated period will not be accepted for any reason.
- 3) 4th year students and above can take courses offered by the Graduate School of Social Sciences during the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd registration period. Please contact the school office for the application method.
- 4) If courses that require Audit Fee / Course Enrollment Fee are registered, you need to complete the payment in the period shown above. As payment method will be sent to Waseda mail address, please be sure to check email. If you don't pay within the period, the registration will be automatically canceled, and your course registration priority will be lowered from the following semester.
