グループワークやディスカッション。 なかなか話し合いが始まらないグループがいた。 ・・・あなたなら、どうする?

活発そうに見えたグループがいたが、実は1人が話してばかりで、 他の学生に発言するチャンスがない。 ・・・あなたなら、どうする?

As the last session of the TA workshop this year, this fun and interactive session helps TAs react in difficult teaching moment, enhance their skills in problem solving in real time. Participants will have the opportunity to discuss in Japanese/English setting, as well as participate in group work.

- In the group work, there are some individuals who are always quiet and not seem to be interested in participating, what should you do as the facilitator/instructor/TA?
- In the class, you noticed there are some individuals who speak a lot and want to ask a lot of questions, which takes time from other students. What are you going to do in this situation?
-(your own challenging situation in the class)

Applying an interactive and engaging method, this workshop will offer opportunities for every participant to brainstorm and exchange ideas on how to react in difficult teaching moment. Co-facilitators are Instructional Consultant Dr. Wei Zuo from the University of Washington, Assistant Professor Dr. Yan Jiang from the Center for Higher Education studies. Let us learn from each other, learn with each other, and learn about each other!
