

Study Abroad Agreement

(Global Leadership Fellows Program Addendum)

To Professor Kate Elwood, Dean of the Center for International Education

I, as an applicant to and participant in Waseda University's study abroad program (Deadline: November, 2020); Waseda Global Leadership Fellows Program (hereafter "GLFP"), fully understand and agree to the terms and conditions as indicated in this addendum to the "Study Abroad Agreement." I also agree not to lodge any formal objection or protest in the case that I may lose the right to participate in the study abroad program, and any and all other GLFP programs, or support from Waseda University by failing to comply with these terms and conditions.

1. I agree to participate positively and spontaneously in all the GLFP related activities conducted by Waseda University or other partner universities. I agree to participate not only in the activities of my own but also in the activities to support my junior students and future study abroad students positively and spontaneously.
2. I understand the purpose of GLFP and agree to complete all the courses and curriculums required by the program including the followings.
 - 1) Before going abroad to study, (a) Preparatory comparative cultures course
 - 2) After finishing study abroad program, (a) U.S.-Japan Zemi (b) Global Leadership Fellows Forum
 - 3) Participation in the orientation, field trip, and other activities set by the program.
 - 4) Submission of various assignments given in the program.

*The curriculums are subject to change.
3. I understand that the acceptance to the university of my choice is not guaranteed and Waseda University has the right to make the final decision.
