CSL Program Courses

Chinese Courses (mandatory)
NTU Courses (at least 1 course)

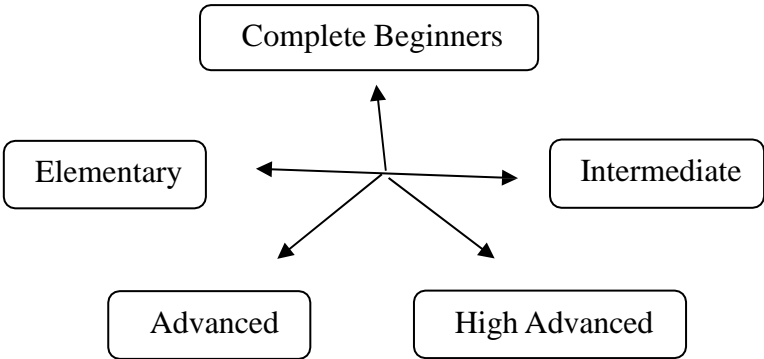

Waseda CSL students will enroll in Chinese Courses from the Chinese Language Division* (CLD). While learning Chinese, Waseda CSL students are also required to enroll in at least one NTU academic course per semester.

*About CLD

Established in 1984, CLD offers programs on Mandarin Chinese language training and facilitated research projects in this field. CLD enables students to achieve wide-ranging and fluent competence in spoken Chinese, and helps students develop the reading skills necessary for academic or professional environments.

Experiential Learning and Extracurricular Activities

Student Clubs: NTU has 400 student clubs that students can join, international students included. For more information, please visit:

<http://www.active.ntu.edu.tw/en/Clubs>

NTU Student Volunteers: Each Waseda exchange student will be paired with a local NTU student to help them ease the process of adjusting to and integrating into a foreign community.

Dorm Events: Each dorm frequently coordinates its own cultural activities and social outings for its residents to go on.

Global Lounge: Sponsored by NTU's Office of International Affairs, the Global Lounge provides an open and spacious venue in which both international and local students can host small events, study, or simply relax. Worldwide publications, travel information, and other useful resources are available to international students in the lounge as well.

Academic Advising:

Waseda students may email or visit the NTU Office of International Affairs during open advising hours to consult with the student abroad coordinator.

Credits (24-30 semester-credit hours):

The specifics of credit conversion will be determined by Waseda.

Here is the list of hours and credits calculated based on the total hours.

Please feel free to change the transfer credits or edit this section for the students.

➤ CLD

The students will take 3 classes per day, Monday to Friday for 15 hours per week (Fall, Winter and Spring). Credits are not offered for the courses.
