Alma Mater

Revised by Shoyo TSUBOUCHI/ Lyrics by Gyofu SOMA/ Music by Tetteki TOGI

- 1 . Northwest of City great and fair, In the wood of Waseda,
Rise proudly high up in the air, Our old college dome and tower.
Our high-aspiring, cherished plan, Fond ambitions, know ye not?
The torch of Progress in the van, Glaring fire of freest thought;
The infinite Eternal Aim, Careful, too, of present need.
How brightly onward, at its name, See our steady ranks proceed!
Waseda, Waseda, Waseda, Waseda, Waseda, Waseda, Waseda!

- 2 . From east and west, from age to age, All tides of civilization
In one huge whirlpool ever surge Round this great island Nation.
Whose lofty mission are we not Carrying on our shoulders strong,
Through hardships of the vast untrod, Endless as we march along?
Yet soon our hoped Eternal Goal May its gleaming shadow cast
And with its all-embracing soul Illumine the World at last!
Waseda, Waseda, Waseda, Waseda, Waseda, Waseda, Waseda!

- 3 . And look on yonder wooded hill Decked with evergreen, for there
We have our home for heart and will, School, with kind maternal care!
Her students change from year to year, Meet and part with youth's delight,
Yet all alike we seek to share These ideals and their light.
Come, let us sing in all accord, And with raptures ring the air,
To praise the honored name aloud of our Alma Mater dear!
Waseda, Waseda, Waseda, Waseda, Waseda, Waseda, Waseda!
