都市

カナダ・オンタリオ州の州都であり、国際的な活気にあふれた多文化都市であるトロントは、生活の場として最高の都市の一つとしてあげられています。その魅力はかつて世界で最も高い塔の1つであったCNタワーやチャイナタウン、リトルイタリーなどの多彩な顔を持ち合わせているところにあります。夏は日照時間も長くなるため、思い思いのアクティビティを楽しむことができます。

留学先

1827年に創立されたトロント大学は、カナダ屈指の名門校です。研修が行われる大学附属の語学研修機関New Collegeは、ダウンタウンの中心に位置しながらも、緑の美しい佇まいと歴史的建築物が融合する魅力的なセントジョージキャンパスに所在します。早大生が参加するIEP（International English Program）は、早稲田大学が長年夏季短期留学で利用しているプログラムで、多彩な国籍の学生が参加しており、世界中からの学生と共に英語を学ぶことで異文化に触れることができるのも大きな特徴です。

プログラム

●参加者の主な出身国・地域：台湾、中国、メキシコ、日本
 ●平均的な参加者数：100名以上 ●1クラスあたりの人数：9～15名
 “General English Course”に約3週間参加します。授業は9時～12時の午前中に行われ、ディスカッションなどのグループアクティビティを通して、4技能（スピーキング、リスニング、リーディング、ライティング）や文法、語彙、発音を総合的に学びます。また出発前にプレイスメントテストを受け自身のレベルにあったクラスで学びます。午後にはオプションのクラス（別途実費）の受講も可能です（“Culture & Community Course”または“Perspectives on Global Commerce Course”、いずれも英語力中級以上）。またクラス以外の時間には、市内観光をはじめ、大リーグ観戦、ナイアガラフォールズ見学やフレンチカナダへの旅行等のさまざまな課外活動が予定されており（別途実費）、現地の英語に触れながらカナダの文化を学ぶことができます。

GENERAL ENGLISH COURSE(午前の基本クラス)

Age: 18+

Course Length: 3 Weeks

Schedule: 9:00AM to 12:00PM, Monday to Friday

Classes: 15 Hours / Week

Minimum Level Required: All Levels

The General English Course (GEC) offers daily classes led by fully-accredited English language teachers that develop all aspects of students' English language abilities, including: speaking, listening, writing, reading, grammar, vocabulary, and pronunciation. The aim of the course is to help students improve their confidence, fluency, and accuracy through a variety of communicative activities, such as collaborative projects, discussions, and presentations. Students are encouraged throughout the course to share their own knowledge and experience in the classroom.

General English classes focus on learning grammar and vocabulary by communicating with others. Students wishing additional practice with general conversation and pronunciation have the option of taking an afternoon speaking class.

GEC is a good fit for you if:

- You are looking to develop all aspects of your English abilities: speaking, listening, writing, reading, and vocabulary
- You are looking to improve their confidence, fluency, and grammatical accuracy
- You are travelling need a leisurely approach to situation-based English
- You have been studying English in your own country and can use opportunity to practice with other speakers of English

Note: GEC is designed for students of all levels, from beginner to advanced. However, it is not recommended for complete beginners.

Evaluation and Certificate

At the end of the General English Course (GEC), students receive a personalized evaluation and those who succeed are rewarded a certificate of course completion from University of Toronto, New College.

In order to receive a program certificate, students must:

- Actively participate in class activities and discussions.
- Show improved fluency and accuracy over the course of the program.
- Complete their final project, as well as any assigned homework, to the satisfaction of the teacher.

Class Placement

All IEP classes are assigned based on the results of our written test and a one-to-one interview with a teacher. Students should understand that there is no pre-determined cutoff for beginner, intermediate and advanced levels: students will be grouped with others of similar experience, based on the abilities they show on the test.

※現地のスケジュール・内容は、現地受入れ側または天候等の都合により一部変更となる場合があります。

CULTURE & COMMUNITY COURSE(午後のオプションクラス)※参加任意、別途実費

Age: 18+

Course Length: 3 Weeks

Schedule: 1:00PM to 4:00PM, Monday to Friday

Classes: 15 Hours / Week

Minimum Level Required: Intermediate

Being a modern citizen involves valuing the differences and recognizing the similarities between diverse groups of people. The Culture & Community Course (CCC) is designed to engage international students with opportunities to improve their core language proficiency while exploring approaches to intercultural communication and developing projects that involve a community-centred approach to learning. Students will explore cultural content locally from Toronto, regionally from Canada, and globally from student cultures and beyond to better understand how context impacts communication. This course requires students to be active learners and work collaboratively on a project that can positively impact a local community area within the city through class instruction that focuses on exploring communication strategies, raising cultural awareness, and identifying potential challenges.

CCC is a good fit for you if:

- You would like to improve your ability to communicate in English
- You have an interest in learning about Toronto and Canada cultural contexts
- You have an interest in spending more time in Canada in the future

Evaluation and Certificate

At the end of the Culture & Community Course (CCC), students receive a personalized evaluation and those who succeed are rewarded a certificate of course completion from University of Toronto, New College.

In order to receive a program certificate, students must:

- Actively participate in class activities.
- Show improved fluency over the course of the program.
- Complete the final project, along with any assigned homework, to the satisfaction of the teacher

Class Placement

Perspectives on Global Commerce Course (午後のオプションクラス)※参加任意、別途実費

Age: 18+

Course Length: 3 Weeks

Schedule: 1:00PM to 4:00PM, Monday to Friday

Classes: 15 Hours / Week

Minimum Level Required: Intermediate

Business Experience: Not Required

The world is fueled by business and entrepreneurship – both locally and internationally. Through case studies, interactive activities, and teamwork with students from all over the world, participants will learn skills essential to business, such as problem-solving, leadership, and communication. Each week, you will work on specialized professional tasks and a collaborative project as part of your independent study. Our classes provide opportunity for you to actively practice new language skills and integrate course content by engaging with your instructor and other participants. Students will complete a group project that involves critique of a commercial case study for success and weakness.

PGC is a good fit for you if:

- You are a business student and are interested in a commerce-related career that requires English or you have recently entered the working world in a commercial environment
- You wish to further your understanding of project management
- You want practice communicating in professional situations

Evaluation and Certificate

At the end of the Perspectives on Global Commerce Course (PGC), students receive a personalized evaluation and those who succeed are rewarded a certificate of course completion from University of Toronto, New College.

In order to receive a program certificate, students must:

- Actively participate in class activities.
- Show improved fluency over the course of the program.
- Complete the final project, along with any assigned homework, to the satisfaction of the teacher

Class Placement

All IEP classes are assigned based on the results of our written test and a one-to-one interview with a teacher. Students will be grouped with others of similar experience, based on the abilities they show on the test.
