<When Entering Japan>

I. Residence card

- You must obtain a "Student Visa" at the Japanese Embassy or Consulate in your home country before departing for Japan. Unfortunately, there has been a tragic case in the past. A student assumed they could enter on a tourist visa and then switch to a student visa within Japan, so they came to Japan without the proper visa. However, under the Japanese system, that is impossible. That student had to return to their home country, re-apply for the visa, and then fly back to Japan. This results in irrecoverable losses, including high airfare costs, credit shortages due to missed classes, and major schedule delays. Even if you are currently in the process of applying, please make sure you have the "Student Visa" in your hand before boarding your flight to Japan.

- When you arrive in Japan, a residence card will be issued at the airport* after landing permission is granted.

* Residence card issuing airports are limited to New Chitose, Narita, Haneda, Chubu, Kansai, Hiroshima, and Fukuoka.

ADDRESS
(When you change your address, new address will be written on the back side of the card.)

STATUS OF RESIDENCE

PERIOD OF STAY
(DATE OF EXPIRATION)

- By Japanese law, you are required to carry your Residence Card with you whenever you go out. The card serves as your official identification in Japan and is required for various procedures, including opening a bank account, signing a mobile phone contract, and completing administrative formalities. Failure to carry your Residence Card may result in a fine.

- “Permission to Engage in Activity other than that Permitted under the Status of Residence Previously Granted (資格外活動許可) .” during your immigration process. Fill out the APPLICATION FORM and submit it along with your passport and COE at landing inspection. This is the simplest and fastest way: just submit an application form at the airport counter upon entry, and you will receive a work permit stamp on the back of your Residence Card. If you do not apply at the airport, you will later have to visit the crowded Immigration Bureau yourself and go through complex procedures. Even if you haven't decided whether to work part-time yet, it doesn't hurt to get this permission at the airport if there is even a slight possibility.

<After Arriving in Japan>

I. Three procedures at the Ward/City Office

Complete the following three procedures at the Ward Office (区役所/市役所) where you live. For example, go to Shinjuku-ku City Office (新宿区役所) if you live in Shinjuku-ku (新宿区). All necessary procedures can be completed in a single visit to the Ward Office.

1. Resident Registration To be done FIRST!*

- After moving into your residence, you must take your residence card to the City/Ward Office that serves your area within 14 days to register your address. Once the registration is completed, your address will be printed on the back of your residence card, making it a valid form of official identification.

2. National Health Insurance (NHI)

- After completing your Resident Registration, take your residence card to the NHI section of the ward office. You will receive an "Eligibility Confirmation Letter \(資格確認書\)" there.
- All registered residents staying in Japan for more than three months are obliged to enroll in the NHI, regardless of nationality or age. This includes exchange students as well.

In case you are not enrolled in the NHI, serious problems may arise with your residence status. Therefore, you must complete the required procedures at the National Insurance Division of your ward office.

- By joining NHI, you only have to pay thirty percent of the total treatment cost as a copayment when you see a doctor. For example, if your treatment costs JPY 10,000, you pay JPY 3,000. Some treatments, including childbirth, traffic accidents, medical examinations, and cosmetic surgery, are not covered by this insurance.
- You need to pay the insurance premium monthly after registration. The premium varies depending on where you live and your income. In Shinjuku-ku, it is about JPY 1,500 per month with a student discount.
- When you see a doctor for injuries or illnesses, present your "Eligibility Confirmation Letter." Otherwise, the copayment discount will not apply.

3. National Pension

- All registered residents of Japan aged 20 to 59 years, regardless of nationality, are obliged to enroll in the National Pension. This includes students staying in Japan for less than a year (e.g., exchange students).
- In case you are not enrolled in the National Pension or fail to complete the special waiver (学生納付特例制度) procedures, your residence status may be negatively affected. Complete the required procedures at the National Pension Division of your ward office to avoid this.
- What you need to do depends on your age:

Students under 20	You do not have to enroll or pay. If you turn 20 while in Japan, you must go to the municipal office to enroll and apply for an exemption.
Students 20 and older	Enrollment is mandatory. To be exempt from paying the monthly premiums, you must apply for the special waiver (学生納付特例制度) at the National Pension Division of your ward office. If you do not apply, you will receive bills and be treated as having unpaid premiums.

- Note that the special waiver (学生納付特例制度) requires annual application. If you plan to stay in Japan for more than one year after turning 20, you must apply each year. You do not need to visit the ward office every year; simply return the postcard sent to your home to complete the procedure).

II. Residency Check Form

- After completing your Resident Registration at the City Office, provide Waseda University with the information on your status of residence through the Residency Check Form.

The screenshot shows the 'New Residency Check Form' interface. At the top, there is a blue header with the title 'New Residency Check Form' and the Japanese title '新 在留資格確認フォーム'. To the right of the title, there is a language dropdown menu set to '日本語' (Japanese) and a print icon. Below the header, a light blue box contains a greeting in Japanese: 'こんにちは、Mami。このフォームを送信すると、所有者に名前とメールアドレスが表示されます。' (Hello, Mami. When you send this form, your name and email address will be displayed to the owner.). Below this, there is a section titled '注意事項' (Important Notice) with a red warning icon. The notice text reads: 'Please choose the language (Japanese or English) from the dropdown list at the top right of the form. 早稲田大学は、出入国管理及び難民認定法第十九条の一七に基づき、外国人学生の在留資格を管理しています。本フォームを用いて証明書等をアップロードしてください。 ※在留期間更新および資格変更の場合は、新しい在留カードの交付から14日以内に申請してください。' (Waseda University manages the residence status of foreign students based on Article 19-17 of the Immigration Control and Refugee Recognition Act. We use this form to upload certificates, etc. Please upload them using this form. ※In the case of residence status update or qualification change, please apply within 14 days from the issuance of the new residence card.).

- After uploading your residence card data on the Residency Check Form, update your address on MyWaseda at the same time. First, log in to MyWaseda, and go to [Update Student Profile] > [Change of Personal Information] from the left menu.
- After registering your address on MyWaseda, you will receive a notification from your undergraduate or graduate school office about a sticker with your new address for your student ID. Pick it up at the office and affix it to the back of your student ID.
- A student ID without your correct address may be invalid, so do this promptly.

III. MyWaseda

- “MyWaseda” is the Waseda University’s online portal site. Important procedures, including email communication, course registration, grade confirmation, address, and bank account registration, are handled through this site.
- You will receive your MyWaseda login ID and password from your undergraduate or graduate school, along with instructions on how to use it.
Each undergraduate and graduate school also has bulletin boards. Notices such as scholarship for regular students and exam schedules will be posted there, so check them frequently.
- Keep your current address updated in MyWaseda.

<While Staying in Japan>

I. Opening a bank account

1. When opening a bank account

- In general, you cannot open a bank account if you have been in Japan for less than six months. However, some banks, such as Japan Post Bank or Tokyo Star Bank, may allow Waseda students to open accounts before six months have passed.
 - For more details, your affiliated undergraduate or graduate school office will email you around the middle of September (except for some schools).
- During the first six months in Japan, your account will be a "non-resident account." This restricts activities, such as internet banking, overseas remittances, receiving money from abroad, and creating credit cards. Once six months have passed, some banks may request you to change your status to a "resident account." Check with your bank for details.
- To open an account, your student ID is needed. You can obtain your student ID from your undergraduate or graduate school on or after April 1 for the spring semester and on or after September 21 for the fall semester. Please keep in mind that you will not be able to open an account before you receive your student ID.
- With the support of our partner banks, in-person bank account opening sessions will once again be offered to students during the Fall Semester 2026 (dates to be announced).
[Eligibility]
New international students who are expected to remain enrolled at Waseda University for one year or more.
Materials for Japan Post Bank, which lets you apply using your own smartphone app, are also available HERE.

2. After opening

- After opening an account, log in to MyWaseda and register it. You cannot receive a scholarship without registration, even if you are eligible.
- Refer to the manual below for instructions on registering your account.
<https://waseda.box.com/s/aq3zx2gli1qdszgeni44p0fhhemt3g7h>

- Close your account before leaving Japan. Failure to do so may result in unexpected losses. Unclosed bank accounts have sometimes been misused by third parties.

II. Extension of "period of stay"

Only for Regular Students. Exchange students are NOT eligible except for special cases.

- Residence cards have a valid period of stay. Check your residence card carefully.
- You may apply to extend your period of stay from three months before your period of stay expires. Any stay after the expiration is illegal residence, so be sure to apply to the Immigration Services Bureau to extend the period of stay before the expiration date.
- Read the CIE website or use the QR code below to check the necessary procedures.
- The office responsible for processing your documents and the submission method vary depending on your faculty or graduate school. Please make sure you understand which office to submit your documents to and the required submission method before proceeding.

● VERY IMPORTANT:

Aim to maintain good grades and earn sufficient credits as a Waseda student. Keeping up with your studies supports your extension approval.

III. Leaving Japan temporarily

- If you are leaving Japan temporarily to return to your country or travel abroad for vacation, check the "I am leaving Japan temporarily and will return" box on the ED card (available at the Airport Immigration) and present it to the immigration officer upon departure. Detailed information can be found at the following URL.

IV. Part-time work permission

- If you did NOT obtain the "Permission to Engage in Activity other than that Permitted under the Status of Residence Previously Granted" (the "Permission") (資格外活動許可) at the airport, you can apply at the Regional Immigration Services Bureau. It takes a few weeks to two months to receive it. For application instructions, check HERE:

- Working hours with the Permission must not exceed the legal limit shown below.

During the class period	28 hrs. per week
During the summer/winter/spring breaks	8 hrs. per day and 40 hrs. per week

- * In case you work beyond this limit, you will be subject to penalties, such as deportation, a fine, or imprisonment.
- * You are prohibited from working part-time in any kind of adult entertainment businesses. This includes work such as dishwashing or cleaning in those places.
- Notes when working as a TA or RA
 - If you are a regular student working as a Teaching Assistant (TA) or a Research Assistant (RA) at Waseda University with a "Student" status of residence, you do not need the Permission. Working hours as either a TA, a RA, or both at Waseda University must be under 20 hours per week.
 - [Non-regular students (including exchange students)]
As a general rule, non-regular students (including exchange students) cannot work as a TA or RA. If allowed, the Permission is necessary.
 - [Regular students]
Regular students who work in positions other than as a TA or RA must obtain the Permission.
- Notes when working as a Tutor
 - Regular students with a "Student" status of residence who wish to work as a Tutor at Waseda University are required to obtain permission before applying. Without this permission, they are not permitted to work as a Tutor.
- Waseda University ensures proper management of international students' compliance with Article 19, Paragraph 1 of the Immigration Control and Refugee Recognition Act. Please use the "Outside Activity \(Part-time Employment\) Disclosure Form" to disclose any activities other than that permitted under the Status of Residence previously granted (i.e. a part-time job). Submit this form when starting a new part-time job, when there are any changes to your current part-time job, or in any case in which you are unsure whether you should report.

<Other Useful Information>

I. Cautions for renting a room/place

[Important] We have received feedback about student use of rental houses in the community. These concerns are not related to anyone's country of origin, but often involve garbage disposal and noise. Please be mindful of these issues to help maintain a comfortable and safe study abroad experience.

- Follow local rules for garbage separation. Ensure you are familiar with how to sort your trash, when to put it out, and how to handle large items. Stay updated on any changes or issues with garbage collection.
- Remember to pay your rent for the upcoming month before the due date, which is typically at the end of the month. Rent is still required even if you are away for a long time, such as during a vacation.
- Do not permit your friends, families, or others to rent out a room (including Airbnb) during your absence.
- Keep noise levels appropriate at all times. Do not make loud noises at night, as this often causes neighborhood disturbances.
- You are not allowed to share your apartment, intended for single occupancy, with anyone else under the contract.
- Be careful of each provision of your lease contract when terminating or renewing it, especially regarding rent.
- Restore the room to its original condition upon moving out. Fixtures and fittings must be in the same condition as when you moved in.
- If you intend to end your current lease early to move elsewhere, you need to contact your counterparty or real estate agent. in advance at least one month before the date you move out.
- If you have any problems with your housing, consult with the landlord or the real estate company right away.

II. Stress care: How to manage your stress

- While living in a foreign country for a long time, it is natural for many international students to a greater or lesser extent, feel some kind of stress due to various factors. You should pay attention to your stress.
- <Stress faced by international students>

- ① Culture Shock (language/lifestyle/religious view/social structure)
- ② Academic difficulty due to differences in the education system
- ③ Worries about problems in your home country, such as wars, political upheavals, or economic crises

- ④ Anxiety about a visa
- ⑤ Stress from the human relationship with supervisor, roommate, or landlord/landlady
- ⑥ Dealing with homesickness
- ⑦ Career path selection after graduation or going back to the home country

- Remember, you don't have to handle everything on your own. Whenever you need support, the Student Counseling Center is here to listen and help.

III. Student health checkup

- Eligible students will receive an email by September. Follow the instructions in it.
*Qualification for the student health checkup varies depending on your admission category, such as Regular student or exchange student.
- You must book a time and submit the health survey before your checkup.
- If you remain enrolled after next October, your student health checkup will be in April. Please make sure to attend.

IV. On-campus consultation services

1. Health Support Center

Overview	The center provides consultations on mental and physical health, emergency first aid, and referrals to English-speaking medical facilities.

V. Waseda University Libraries

- Waseda University has many libraries, including the Central Library, four Campus Libraries, School Libraries for each division, and seven Students' Reading Rooms. For more information, please visit the following links.

<https://www.waseda.jp/library/en/>

- A student ID is required to borrow books.
- Borrowing periods and the number of books you can borrow depend on your status.
Undergraduates: 15 books in 14 days, Graduate: 30 books in 14 days
- Copiers, PCs, Wi-Fi, and group study rooms are available.

VI. Miscellaneous

1. Suica / PASMO

- Suica and PASMO are rechargeable IC cards that can be used for train, subway, and bus travel instead of paper tickets. They offer the same functions and convenience; the only difference is the issuing company.
- Both Suica and PASMO are also available as mobile versions that can be added to your smartphone.

2. Commuter Pass ("Teikiken" in Japanese)

- A student ID is needed to buy a student commuter pass.
- You can buy the pass for the route between your nearest station and Waseda University. The expiration may be one, three, or six months. Longer expiration periods reduce the overall cost.
- If you have a Suica or PASMO card, you can incorporate a commuter pass function into it.
- To buy the pass, fill in a commuter application form and submit it to the ticket office at your boarding station. Bring your student ID. You can pay with cash or credit card. The passes are issued on the day you apply. If you use Suica or PASMO as a commuter pass, your commuting stations and dates of validity will be printed on the card.
