Welcome to Center for Japanese Language, Waseda University! In Comprehensive Japanese 1, all classes are basically conducted in Japanese. The textbooks and quizzes will be written entirely in Japanese, and from the very first lesson you will be expected to be able to read and write kana with ease. If you have no or little knowledge about Japanese writing systems (especially that of kana), it will affect your Japanese studies for the entire course. You should learn Hiragana and Katakana before your class starts, which means you can read and write all letters. See this website: <https://a1.marugotoweb.jp/ja/>.

We hope the websites below help you learn Japanese writing systems.

1. Hiragana & Katakana Basic chart(ひらがな&カタカナ表)

表のひらがなとカタカナをクリックして、書き順と発音を確認してください。

By clicking each hiragana or katakana in the charts, you can see its stroke order and hear how it is pronounced. Visual clips are provided with hiragana.

You will be required to register at Minato website.
