The Weekly SHONEN JUMP magazine is an icon of Japanese pop culture!

And to reach non-Japanese speaking fans around the world, the magazine has been translated into English for more than 10 years and sold in many different countries.

The company responsible for this advancement is VIZ Media, a leader in the publishing and distribution of Japanese manga for English speaking audiences. This time, Ken Sasaki, President and CEO of VIZ Media, will come to our university to share some behind-the-scene stories!
