

ICC Japanese Culture Event

IKEBANA WORKSHOP

Immerse yourself in the art of Japanese flower arrangement

Oct 30th (Fri)

4:30-6:00pm

生け花体験教室

Ikebana is the traditional Japanese art of flower arrangement. For this event, you will be given an Ikebana demonstration followed by a workshop, where you can try making your own Ikebana. Also you'll be able to take the flowers home! This is one of the few offline events which will be held in this semester! It is a great chance to make new friends especially for new students. Don't miss it! We'll be waiting for you!

■ Guest Profile:

Keiko YOSHINO (Teacher of the Sogetsu School of Ikebana)

Board Member at Ikebana International Headquarters from 2012-2016.

Worked as the first teacher of Ikebana in "La Maison de la culture du Japon a Paris" and also worked in the OECD Paris ACRA. She has been engaged as the organizer of the "London Ikebana Exhibition" 7 times and held a Daiwa Foundation Ikebana workshop and Girls Schools Ikebana trial workshop to spread Ikebana to more people. In "Japanese Year" in Dublin and "Japan Week" in Yemen she introduced Ikebana to people with no experience of it through demonstrations and workshops. She is now the Airbnb Japanese Culture Instructor and currently holds Ikebana events for foreign people.
