

JSPS Core to Core seminar:

Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and Norm Diffusion

Date and Time: November 1st (Fri), 13:00 – 18:00

Venue: Conference room 1, Floor 5, Building 9, Waseda Campus, Waseda University

Panel 1: Theoretical Framework 13:00 – 14:00

1. Applying the “spiral model” of norm diffusion to analyses of SDG case studies: A theoretical introduction
Thais Souza (Waseda University)
 2. Problems of and prospects for the spiral model of norm diffusion
Paul Bacon (Waseda University)
- Discussion / Q&A [15 min]

Break 14:00 -14:10

Panel 2: Health and Decent work 14:10 – 15:40 [20 min presentation + 10 min Q&A]

1. Implementing the decent work agenda in Georgia: Dynamics in the selective adaptation process
Shukuko Koyama (Waseda University)
2. Sexual and reproductive health rights in the Philippines and the SDGs: Evolution, contestations and compliances
Elena Avramovska (Université libre de Bruxelles)
3. Norm diffusion of universal health coverage (UHC) through global health diplomacy
Yasushi Katsuma (Waseda University)

Coffee Break 15:40 – 16:00 ☕

Panel 3: Education 16:00 – 17:30 [20 min presentation + 10 min Q&A]

1. Beyond regionalization of higher education in Europe
Frederik Ponjaert (Université libre de Bruxelles)
2. Policy intention versus policy implementation: Disparities seen in norm diffusion of inclusive education in Cambodia
Makiko Hayashi (University of the Sacred Heart)
3. Diffusion of inclusive education concept as a norm of educational policy in developing countries: A Case of Malawi
Jun Kawaguchi (University of Tsukuba)

Discussion / Q&A: the way forward 17:30 – 18:00

[Supported by] JSPS Core-to-Core (C2C) Programme, A. Advanced Research Networks “The European Union and Japan in a Fluid Global Liberal Order: Establishing an Inter-Regional Studies Centre”, Organization for Regional and Inter-regional Studies (ORIS), Waseda University