THE GUYS' FLOORS

2nd floor

RA
Hiroki
Matsumoto

The only floor that you can get to without using the elevator; that, ladies and gentlemen, is the 2nd floor. Our address is located past the Fitness Room, and indeed, it is known as Smash Bros. Land™. Wealth. Fame. Power. Kouta Wagatsuma, the King of Smash Bros., attained everything this world has to offer. The words he uttered just before his death drove people to Smash Bros. “Mario Kart? Who plays that crap?! I have bet everything this world has to offer on Smash Bros. Become stronger! However long it may take, I shall await you at the top!” And so men head for Smash Bros. Land™ in pursuit of their dreams! The world has truly entered a Great Smash Bros. Era!

“It’s alright if you stumble, we’re human after all,”

Mitsuo (the 3rd floor) supports all those who are embarking on great challenges in their college life.

Even if things happen to bring you down, we’re there to welcome you back with open arms. Yes, Mitsuo is the kind of place that everyone can call home. Be dumb when you want to be, and have fun when you want to have fun!

Wait, what about time for studying...? Lol

Well anyway, everyone all has some sort of goal in mind and are doing all kinds of things!

A just-returned-from-study-abroad-RA, a mischievous and playful RA, a grandpa RA, and an even more grandpa RA.

4th floor has something that only “The 4th floor” can express; atmosphere, culture, the togetherness. The 4th floor spirit is having fun together, doing stupid things together, strong personality, and connecting even with the alumnis. Those are the things you’ll feel daily on the 4th floor. Welcome to the 4th floor.

It’s only been a month since I moved to the 4th floor but the this floor is really lively! I thought the 6th floor was a lively floor but the 4th floor is even more lively! Lots of people use the kitchen, and I hope I can hang with more people from now on!

In my opinion, the 4th floor has lively international exchange! At the new students welcoming party in September, everyone joined actively regardless of where they’re from or which grade they’re in. You could hear English thrown around casually in the kitchen, and many residents want to get to know each other.

I was a second floor resident, but I moved to 4th floor in September after becoming an RA. The first thought I had was that 4th floor is really spacious. WISH is huge afterall. After living here, I feel that everyone’s nice, fun, and there are lots of other good things. Even though the kitchen is kind of dirty LOL.

5th floor

The 5th floor is, without a doubt, the cleanest floor in WISH! This tradition has been around since WISH was built, and the residents always remind each other to maintain the cleanliness. One time the kitchen got dirty, and residents warned the others without being told to. Thanks to that, the kitchen was successfully kept clean. Generally, the 5th floor has a calm atmosphere so you can relax here. With the quiet environment, you can do what you want to, so if you have a friend who lives on the 5th floor, why don't you come study on the 5th floor sometimes?

The 6th floor is quite different from other floors... it's also known as "Phoenix"!! The residents are just like a Phoenix bird, using every failure as another chance to grow. The awesome residents live an exciting life, regardless of nationality and department, here on the 6th floor. The floor hoodie that makes the other envious, the famous 6th floor Curry Party... there's no end with talking about the 6th floor awesomeness. It is a place where people can grow and enjoy with friends from all over the world! Phoenix delivers you the best dorm life!

Hi! I'm Luigi, a Jr. RA here on the 7th floor. Welcome! Let's get you acquainted with our DOPE floor, starting in the kitchen. You'll notice a rather unusual lack of dirt, filth, or spilled Monster drinks and old milk found on other floors - our kitchen consistently ranks as one of the cleanest in WISH! This cleanliness encourages residents to emerge from their rooms and interact in the kitchen. With a quick glance, you'll see Plum from Thailand cooking up a fiery curry, Wilson the engineering major from Indonesia contemplating calculus over a stir fry, Hayato our American boy frying up some pork chops, and Nishie the RA making his classic miso shiru. On a good day this diverse pool of chefs guarantees any kitchen visitors at least a bite of an exotic dish - all in good spirits, of course. Now that we're full, let's proceed down the hall. You'll notice that the floor is spotless and the units (with a few unfortunate exceptions) are delightfully clean and organized. Once again, this cleanliness draws people from their rooms! You'll see residents sleeping, playing video games, chatting, eating, or perhaps even - if luck is on your side, studying. The 7th floor as a whole has a wonderfully positive and upbeat feel - please come and visit us! Buh-bye now!
