Academic Year 2021, Summer

Application Guidelines for Waseda University Emergency Scholarship

<For International Students>

“Waseda University Emergency Scholarship” is a scholarship to support students who have difficulty in continuing their studies due to a sudden and drastic change in their families’ financial situation, such as their financial supporter’s loss of job, bankruptcy, sickness, death, natural disaster, or other emergency reasons.

Please read the guidelines carefully and follow the procedures listed below if you wish to apply for this scholarship. If you pass the screening and are selected as a grantee, you will receive the scholarship.

(Acceptance situation of last summer : Number of Applicants 50 → Number of Grantees 13)

1. Eligibility: Students who meet all the following requirements;

- (1) At the time of application, the reason of sudden changes in their family’s financial circumstances has happened within the past ONE year (August 2020- July 2021).
- (2) Students who are recognized as having difficulty in pursuing their studies for financial reasons.
- (3) International students who are enrolled in regular course and will be able to graduate within standard course term (for undergraduate school) or are on the grade of standard course term (for graduate school).

1 Definitions of sudden changes in family’s financial circumstances are listed below.

Students are recognized as experiencing “a sudden and drastic change in their family’s financial circumstances”, if they fall under any of the following situations;

1. The main provider of the household (either father or mother whose income is higher than the other, or the one who supports family’s finance instead of them)
  - has lost his/her job due to the bankruptcy of the company or dismissal from the company
  - has taken early involuntary retirement due to company’s circumstances
  - has experienced a considerable decrease in their income after re-employmentExcluding voluntary resignation and compulsory retirement
2. The main provider of the household dies or separates from student’s family.
3. The main provider of the household has bankrupted.
4. Household spending has increased considerably, or household income has decreased considerably because of sickness, accidents, bankruptcy of the company, decline of the company, or other reasons that cause the sudden changes of family’s finance.
5. Household spending has increased considerably, or household income has decreased considerably because of disasters such as fire, storm damage, flood, earthquake, and other disasters.

2 Sudden changes which happened more than 1 year ago are not accepted. However, if you were selected as a recipient of this scholarship in the previous academic year, you may reapply with the same reasons.

3 Students whose resident status is “permanent resident” (eijusha), “special permanent resident” (tokubetsu eijusha), “long-term resident”(teijusha), “spouse of a Japanese resident”, “spouse of a permanent resident”, or “spouse of a special permanent resident” are required to submit different documents. Please refer to the guidelines for “ 早稲田大学緊急奨学金 <日本人等学生用 > ”

【Special Measure due to COVID-19】

If you meet all those three following requirements, you meet the special measure due to COVID19.

If you meet all those three following requirements, you can apply for this scholarship even you will not be able to graduate within standard course term(for undergraduate school) or are not on the grade of standard course term (for graduate school).

【!NOTE!】 It does not mean that you will be selected as a recipient of the scholarship if you meet the special measure due to COVID-19.

Those who have difficulty in continuing their studies for a sudden and drastic change in their family's financial situation due to COVID-19.

International students are also required to meet the following situations.

- Those who have the "College Student" status (However, remote class students are also acceptable if they meet the conditions for attendance management, etc.)
- Those who are enrolled in a faculty or graduate school as of May 1, 2021, in principle
- Those who can confirm the economic situation by one of the following methods.
- Certificate of receipt of public support for those who have decreased income due to COVID-19 (Ex:emergency small-lot support, postponement of national and local taxes payment)
- A certificate (income certificate,etc.) that shows that the income amount of the main household supporter in 2020 is less than half the amount of income in 2019. If the main household supporter cannot provide the withholding slip or final tax return due to living overseas, please submit a document that shows the amount of income, etc

Those cases that main household supporters have a salary income of 8.41 million yen or less. Or those cases that main household supporters have a non-salary income of 3.55 million yen or less.
