

Academic Year 2026, Summer
Application Guidelines for Waseda University Emergency Scholarship
<For Japanese Students and International Students>

“Waseda University Emergency Scholarship” is a scholarship to support students who have difficulty continuing their studies due to a sudden and drastic change in their family’s financial situation, such as a financial supporter’s job loss, bankruptcy, illness, death, natural disaster, or other emergencies.

Please read the guidelines carefully and follow the procedures listed below if you wish to apply for this scholarship. If you pass the screening and are selected as a grantee, you will receive the scholarship.

(Acceptance situation of last Summer)

[Japanese Students] Number of Applicants 17 → Number of Grantees 11

[International Students] Number of Applicants 13 → Number of Grantees 9

1. Eligibility: Students who meet all the following requirements.

- (1) At the time of application, the reason for sudden changes^{※1} in their families’ financial circumstances has happened within the past ONE year (August 2025– July 2026)^{※2}. Please note that reapplication based on the same reason is limited to students who were selected during the 2025’s Summer application period and is allowed only once. (2) Students who are recognized as having difficulty in pursuing their studies for financial reasons. (3) Students who are enrolled in a regular course and within the standard course term.

※1 Sudden changes that happened more than 1 year ago are not accepted. ※2 Definitions of sudden changes in the family’ s financial circumstances are listed below.

Students are recognized as experiencing “a sudden and drastic change in their family’ s financial circumstances” if they fall under any of the following situations;

1. The provider of the household (a parent whose income is higher than the other’s, or the one who supports the family’s finances instead of them)
 - has lost his/her job due to the bankruptcy of the company or dismissal from the company
 - has taken early involuntary retirement due to the company’ s circumstances
 - has experienced a considerable decrease in their income after re-employment

※Excluding voluntary resignation and compulsory retirement
2. The provider of the household dies or separates from the student’s family.
3. The provider of the household has gone bankrupt.
4. Household spending has increased considerably, or household income has decreased considerably because of sickness, accidents, bankruptcy of the company, decline of the company, or other reasons that cause sudden changes in the family’s finances.
5. Household spending has increased considerably, or household income has decreased considerably, because of disasters such as fire, storm damage, flood, earthquake, and other disasters.

2. Stipend: 400,000 Yen (1 year)
